

Unless We Stand Up, the Assault on Free Speech Will Shatter the Very Foundation of America

We have a serious existential threat to our nation - repression of free speech. We expect that battle to be ongoing with our foreign enemies, but when the attacks come from our own government agencies to the point of overt control, everything changes.

Like the slow, deliberate crushing of a python on its prey, the suffocating of free speech is a deadly assault on the very foundation of America. And if we don't act now, our country is poised to collapse under the tyrannical rule of a totalitarian government that dictates what you can think and say and do without recourse.

In this briefing we will discuss the following:

- » Free speech is now a crime of national security.
- » The dangerous shift from the word's "truth" and "falsehood" to "narratives."
- » Groupthink leads to totalitarianism and the destruction of the American way of life.
- » Restoration point – the House Committee addressing "Weaponization of the Federal Government."

YOUR MISSION:

To become aware that our freedom of speech and individual liberties are gradually being taken by our own government. It's our time to act and hold the Federal Government accountable and restore America.

ATTENTION: The Federal Government is silencing free speech (and even free thought) through its intelligence agencies and declaring it a crime that threatens national security. This could shatter America's foundation – from the inside.

Ep. 6-227 (OSINT) Open-Sourced Intelligence Report. This briefing includes a conversation between Kevin Freeman and J. Michael Waller, Ph.D. Dr. Waller is a friend of the Economic War Room® and a patriot. He traveled with Kevin Freeman to the Middle East when Kevin was researching the role of the Muslim Brotherhood in economic warfare.

Dr. Waller is a Senior Analyst for Strategy at the Center for Security Policy. In fact, he wrote the first academic study of the Soviet KGB and its transformation during the post-Soviet transition. That was his doctoral thesis. It was titled "Secret Empire - The KGB in Russia Today." It was published in 1994.

Dr. Waller predicted that the former KGB would take over the Russian state. And after the Soviet collapse, he tried to work with the Russian parliament to turn its Human Rights Committee into a Frank Church-style committee that would investigate and uproot the KGB. But Boris Yeltsin didn't get it. Instead, Vladimir Putin grabbed power, just as Dr. Waller feared.

He's written, edited, or contributed to numerous books and articles. Dr. Waller is one of America's leading experts on international security affairs. In fact, he wrote the definitive eyewitness account of the recent January 6 violence in our capital.

1. Free Speech is Now a Crime of National Security.

"It was a strange title because it sounds so crazy, but it's true. If you look at what the FBI was saying and doing in the Twitter files, they were criminalizing free speech. They were treating it as a crime and as a national security issue."

—J. Michael Waller

Recently, Dr. Waller wrote an article in American Greatness titled, "Free Speech is Now a Crime" (<https://amgreatness.com/2022/12/25/free-speech-is-now-a-crime/>):

Release of the Twitter Files – Runs Deeper Than it First Appears. The way Elon Musk released the files was amazing.

- » Musk just simply released them.
- » He allowed some honest, left-wing journalists to have their way through Twitter's own internal systems.
- » The journalists could ask for anything and Twitter would cough it right up on the screen and give them screenshots or printouts.

- » It's an amazing collection of documents that are available to just about anybody who wants them now. And there are probably more to come.

What we found was that the FBI and the CIA and other members of the US intelligence community were using Twitter as a proxy to censor free speech.

An honest, left-wing journalist is someone who doesn't pretend to have a bias but lets you know they have a point of view. They are from the left.

- » They are a person you may not agree with politically, but absolutely agree on liberty.
- » Facts are facts and they don't deny them.
- » They treat people with serious concerns as conspiracy theorists.
- » They say, "Wow, these are the facts. Let them speak for themselves. Let's put them out there. Let's interpret them. Let's discuss them."

How Big Tech Initially Got Involved with the 3 letter agencies:

It began with the FBI and the CIA, and others working with social media companies to track down terrorists.

- » They would find the terrorist networks and track them down, like the Muslim Brotherhood.
- » The agencies would use technology and social media to geo-locate terrorist networks in real-time and kill their voice and influence.

A technique developed for the war on terror.

- » Then it was then civilianized and abused, giving the FBI the capability to suppress free speech and ensure that certain false narratives got out there.
- » People or groups who were censored were unable to question those narratives or provide alternative information.

The Twitter files have shown it was more than just censoring of false narratives

- » This is something we could argue about whether that's a good idea or not.
- » They were taking truth and suppressing it, even though they acknowledged it was truth in some of the tweets.

ALERT: In no way does federal law authorize the FBI to censor free speech, even if it's a "false narrative."

2. The dangerous shift from the words "truth" and "falsehood" to "narratives."

Using the term "narratives" is an old term trick from the Soviet times. Gramsci types (of Marxists) invented "narrative" and "counter-narrative."

- » Now we're using them as normal words, but it's really an old communist subversive term to create false truths and false dialogues. This then leads to false thought processes and false actions.
- » Once something that's "not according to the narrative" is considered a crime or a national security issue, the security apparatus gets involved and starts repressing free speech.
- » This is the ultimate expression of "political correctness."

WARNING: Has our FBI and the intelligence community been infiltrated by communists with the purpose and intention to take America in that direction?

Hostile Forces Want to Penetrate and Manipulate Our Agencies.

Q: What would be the number one foreign intelligence service and the number one counterintelligence and security service on earth that hostile forces would want to penetrate and manipulate?

A: Our three-letter agencies.

- » The bigger scandal is that we have not defended ourselves against this. So, our counterintelligence is poor.
- » Even worse, our education system – public schools and universities – has infiltrated the minds of bright people, well-meaning people, with critical theory, with cultural Marxism.

ATTENTION: As a graduate professor for 13 years, teaching current and future CIA agents and FBI agents and analysts, Dr. Waller has seen how Marxist theories have warped great minds, so they view the world in a completely different way than before.

- » As a result, the left (and other enemies) view the FBI and CIA as instruments to be used for “social justice.” The left formerly sought to limit their power to preserve the potential for dissent.
- » This is a very real problem in America. It’s a direct threat to our liberty and free speech.
- » If we don’t wake up now, America will be ruled by a totalitarian system, like the former Soviet Union, China, and Russia today.

America is facing the very things Dr. Waller warned against and fought to prevent.

- » And now we’re seeing something similar happen in the United States.
- » After they got rid of Donald Trump as President (or some would say in order to get rid of him), the intelligence agencies have taken control of the narrative and taken control of social media and free speech and everything else.

“The [three-letter] agencies are rotten because the nerve centers are rotten, but all the people there are not. There are good ones. And several of them have come out and I anticipate a lot more will.” —J. Michael Waller.

This is a Two-Headed Threat.

- » There’s the offensive threat by the bad elements.
 - The ones who have weaponized the government against the public.
 - The ones who have abused the authority of the FBI and the CIA, which conservatives generally supported over the years.

- » There's a defensive danger. Looking at this objectively,
 - Donald Trump kept the "deep state," as he called it, intact. He didn't do anything against it.
 - He appointed the CIA to run itself with Gina Haspel.
 - He appointed the FBI to run itself with Christopher Wray.
 - He kept the whole diversity brainwashing program going on within both agencies.

It's as if when our elections change, the government agencies are automatically going to change.

3. Unmasking Misinformation, Disinformation and Mal-information.

A look at where these terms are coming from and what they mean.

Disinformation is really a Russian term.

- » It's the English translation of the Russian term "dezinformatsiya," which was a KGB term to define false information that was willfully planted into the public for the purpose of deceiving a target audience.
- » The FBI, by statute, has the obligation to combat foreign disinformation, not as putting out its own narrative, but simply to detect it and expose it.

Misinformation, by contrast, is just a misstatement of fact. It's a mistake.

- » Something wrong was said, something incorrect, or even something that was interpreted the wrong way.
- » It's not deliberate, it's not malicious; there's no bad intent behind misinformation.

Over the years, the FBI has forgotten the difference between the two.

- » Even though you'll see the bureau define both terms accurately, in practice, as the Twitter files show, they were treating misinformation as a crime.

ATTENTION: Sometimes what was labeled misinformation, six months later turns out to be factual information.

- » We've seen this in the COVID narrative.
- » Now we're seeing the Washington Post come out and acknowledge that death with COVID is not the same as death from COVID.
- » The narrative overstated COVID deaths because anybody who died in a bike accident, if they had COVID, was counted as a COVID death.
- » That was (at best) misinformation from the narrative and not from the people.
- » Maybe it was purposed disinformation, which would be overtly manipulative and evil.

News organizations worked with the central government to suppress different points of view.

- » Even from physicians in the case of COVID, where different points of view were necessary.
- » They were repressing any questioning of the narrative.
- » They were de-platforming people, they were silencing people, and they were even depriving them of their livelihoods.

“Mal-information” is a made-up word. It just means bad, which is mal.

- » What is deemed “mal-information” can also be actual truth. It's just deemed bad for us somehow to know the truth. That's just crazy!
- » This is when the truth is wrong, so we can't report it.

CAUTION: This is police state stuff. This is not what the FBI is supposed to be about: protecting the American Constitution. The FBI changed its website in recent months to say, flat out, we're here to uphold the Constitution of the United States. They never used to have to bother to say that anymore because everybody knew that's what the FBI's job was.

WARNING: “Mal-information encourages the Department of Homeland Security and the FBI to determine what is bad information, then run an enforcement mechanism to enforce the stopping and the fighting of information they don't like.” —J. Michael Waller

“As a person who grew up with Christian beliefs, studies the Bible and believes that “God made them male and female” – that could be considered mal-information.” —Kevin Freeman

4. Groupthink Leads to Totalitarianism and Destruction of the American Way of Life.

The scariest part is when you put that narrative out, you get groupthink, and groupthink always leads to totalitarianism and leads to the destruction of individual liberty, creativity, and economic growth.

- » When you have totalitarian control, you have no real economic growth.
- » It destroys everything about the American way of life.
- » That’s why it’s an economic warfare issue.

“Allowing people to disagree with the narrative and to make their argument in a free speech fashion, creates liberty and opportunity and economic growth.” —Kevin Freeman

The Dangers of Only One Point of View

Imagine economic issues like the stock market. You could only have one point of view about stocks and where the market is headed, and any other point of view would be repressed and silenced.

- » That was done recently when we had two consecutive quarters of negative growth decline. They said it’s not a recession.
- » The official government position was – “it’s not a recession.”
- » If you said it was a recession, you were repressed and ridiculed.

Jimmy Carter banned the words “Recession” and “Depression.”

Alfred Kahn was an economic advisor to Jimmy Carter. The President ordered Kahn to not use the term depression. So, Kahn used the term banana instead as he gave a long speech and said, we must be wary that we might have a banana.

The FBI is now pushing the rainbow agenda hard throughout the entire Bureau.

- » On the FBI's own website, only 1% of FBI employees are listed as LGBTQ+.
- » The FBI is pandering and forcing the agents and analysts and the entire staff to go through brainwashing sessions to force them to break with whatever moral concerns or objections they might have to engage in these types of activism.
- » They are encouraging, if not mandating agents, analysts, and the entire staff to participate in Pride Day protests and all sorts of other things.
- » Again, this is political policing. This is not law enforcement or counterintelligence.
- » It is possible to oppose discrimination against LGBTQ+ individuals but also opposes overt preferences, or discrimination against those with sincerely held religious beliefs.

“If I were a foreign power and I wanted to degrade and destroy the United States, I would tear down America’s understanding of truth, its recognition of morality, and its family values. I would stifle morality, stifle freedom and stifle free speech.” —Kevin Freeman

ATTENTION AMERICA: This sounds like a foreign intelligence operation being executed right now on the United States.

Breaking America.

- » The Soviets wanted to break America. Lenin himself had that in mind.
- » Lenin had a whole international Communist Party apparatus called the Comintern (Communist International) that set out to break America.
- » They set up a school in Germany, which then migrated to Columbia University at the teacher's college to teach the teachers of American kids and college students.
- » This has been going on for nearly a century.

5. We do have foreign powers that have been trying to undermine and subvert our institutions, our morality, our self-image, and our national self-image.

Machiavelli wrote about this. Some of the Roman philosophers wrote about this. It's nothing new. Our banks, education system, and even corporations are falling in line with the narratives.

- » The Chinese Communist Party is active in doing precisely this kind of thing – they want us to lose our moral fiber, lose our resolve, lose our sense of purpose, and then collapse.
- » Evidence of U.S. subversion is seen from certain politicians and causes that are being supported and promoted here in the United States.

Punish and Demoralize the Opposition by Repressing Free Speech.

It's demoralizing to tweet something you believe to be true, and have a basis for it, then get canceled from Twitter.

- » It's a way to punish those who are opposing what you're trying to do.
- » It's a way to set an example so everybody else says, "No, no, I've got to be quiet."
- » It's very Orwellian.

"Banks have applied this [oppression] already in the nascent social credit system that's being developed now. Bank of America and others have been doing it – taking away some of the Go Fund Me type sites. They have been doing it to take your political views and to weaponize them against you and then deny you services, even though they're liable for providing everybody services equally." —J. Michael Waller

- » It's starting to happen. The prosecutors aren't prosecuting it and the courts don't seem too interested.
- » We're seeing it happen little by little.
- » It's that gradualism that's dangerous because people brush it off and say it can't happen to them. Yet it does.

This is internal economic warfare when your bank turns on you because the FBI has told them to.

Weaponizing America's Educational System.

- » This is a new sort of the critical theory that's been promoted in universities.
- » The graduates carry that to the banks they work for and the law firms they work for and the prosecutor's offices or the universities they work for.
- » This is all society being weaponized against us through the educational system.

Individual Economic Warfare - A System Working Against Americans.

- » It shows up economically.
- » If you don't get the COVID shot, you lose your job.
- » If you don't comply here, you lose your bank account.
- » PayPal stated that if you have hate speech somewhere on the Internet and they find it, they fine you $2,500. They backed off that but left it in their terms of service. Why?
- » This is destructive to the overall economy, inhibiting growth and creativity.

6. Perhaps there is Restoration Point – The Weaponization of the Federal Government Committee.

The Judiciary Committee, chaired by Jim Jordan, has established the Weaponization of the Federal Government Committee. They're calling it the WTF Government Committee.

- » They're going to be empowered like the left had empowered Frank Church in the 1970s to go after government agency wrongdoing.
- » The WTF Government Committee will not only target abuses in government, but the weaponization of the central government against the American people.
- » It's going to have broad ranging powers.

All of us need to give our lawmakers support when they're doing the right thing.

- » Don't blast them if they're not quite there yet. Instead encourage them from a positive perspective and always ask more of them. Don't let the perfect become the enemy of the good.

- » They need that type of reinforcement because there are a lot more powerful economic forces that are going to be demanding that they do less.

All our lawmakers read the Twitter feeds, so make sure you get things to them that way. Some have Instagram, and a couple even still have Facebook.

- » The real way to get their attention is anything online and anything that directly contacts them.
- » They need positive reinforcement and ideas and knowledge.
- » If you have networks of people, contact them and their staff.

“A lot of people in government don’t know that they have the absolute right to report to Congress without letting their employers know and without any authorization from their employers. If their money is coming from funds appropriated by the US Congress, they have a right and even an obligation to become whistleblowers.” —J. Michael Waller

What happened in Russia after the fall of communism is threatening America.

- » And a lot of people thought – “That’s happening half a world away. I don’t have to worry about it.” But this time it’s not half a world away.
- » If Russia falls, we have the United States.
- » If the United States falls, we have no place.

There is Hope for Our Splintered Nation.

It’s serious for our country because we’re being splintered apart as a nation.

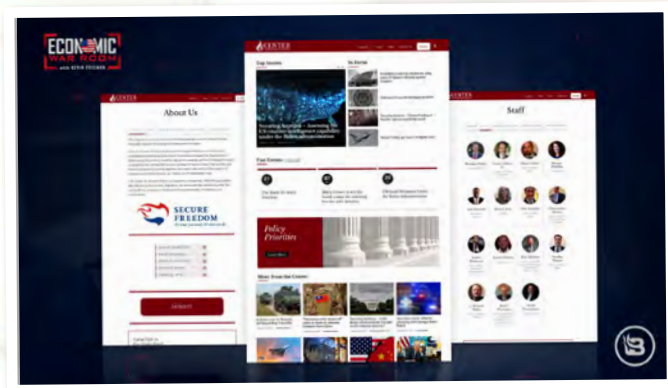

- » This is something that America’s adversaries have wanted to do for generations.
- » It is finally happening now.
- » The future is frightening.
- » Luckily, we’ve got a very thin margin in the House. Pelosi was able to manage her thin majority. So, we think the good guys, the 20 who held out, can do the same thing this time, too.

“This is a serious existential threat to our nation. There’s no question about it. And this is our time to fight back and restore America!” –Kevin Freeman

3. Learn and be aware regarding how our freedom of speech and individual liberties are gradually being taken by our own government.
4. Sound the alarm when our government agencies and leaders are unconstitutionally repressing free speech, even criminalizing it. Twitter can have an impact in your communications. Many follow Instagram comments as well.
5. Hold the Federal Government accountable to its constitutional responsibilities - nothing more and nothing less.
6. Be a strong advocate of the Weaponization of the Federal Government Committee – while holding it accountable as well.
7. Continuously encourage and support lawmakers for doing the right thing.
 - a. Don't blast them if they're not quite there yet but encourage them from a positive perspective and always ask more of them.
