

Cancel Culture & The Trump I Know

Since 2016 the term “Cancel Culture” has become popular to describe the new environment in the world of media distribution. People are getting canceled because of things they believe or have said in the past or political activities. They have seen their accounts banned on social media sites like Twitter or Facebook.

Perhaps the most famous man in the world who served as President of the United States of America has had his speeches taken down off the internet. Media companies can present the portions they edit to smear him. Political persecution of conservatives and people with Christian values has become the new norm. Free speech must be preserved or all the other rights will cease to exist as well.

In this briefing we will discuss the following:

- » Cancel Culture In Film
- » Discovering Truth – The Thayers’ Experience
- » The Trump I Know
- » From Friend to Foe – How Trump’s Closest Friends Betrayed Him
- » Surviving Cancel Culture
- » The Trump I Know – Virtual Release

YOUR MISSION: Learn about Cancel Culture and the film that brings the truth about Donald Trump, according to those who know him best, to the people who need it most.

⚠ ATTENTION: Cancel Culture has prevented the American people from hearing the whole truth on major issues, especially when it comes to President Trump and conservative values.

Ep. 7-255 (OSINT) Open-Sourced Intelligence Report. This briefing includes a conversation between Kevin Freeman and Matt & Joy Thayer. Matt & Joy are friends of the Economic War Room® and are American Patriots.

Matt and Joy Thayer are the co-owners of Spero Pictures. Joy is the head producer and has a degree in media communication. She has a plethora of experience both in front of the camera and behind the scenes. Matt thrives at being a visual storyteller. He is a director, writer, editor, and special effects artist. He has also illustrated several children's books including the "Loving on Purpose" children's series, and the "Supernatural Ways of Royalty" for Kids. Focusing on growing the film community in Northern California, they have taught film production in Redding for the past five years. They have produced over three dozen short films, several of which have gone on to win many awards at film festivals.

1. Cancel Culture In Film

The film industry has been heavily impacted by cancel culture as many prominent actors, directors, producers, etc. have seen their careers collapse due to their political or religious views.

On a grander scale, the industry has seen multiple films, TV shows, and other productions get canceled, shadow banned, or intentionally prevented from launching.

"Sound of Freedom ... That's one of this year's top-performing movies. It's beating Mission Impossible and several others, it beat Indiana Jones. But it touches on a subject that the elite doesn't like. Human trafficking and the sexual exploitation of children. It stars well-known actors, has a good storyline, It was well-produced, but unless you were paying attention, you probably never even know that it was made, let alone released. Disney supposedly sat on it for five years. But it's not the only film that makes the ruling elite nervous." –Kevin Freeman

Not only did Sound of Freedom have issues with production, but once the film was released there were reports from all over the country that certain movie theaters has suspicious activity preventing people from attending.

Some claimed the showing was sold out but when people arrived the place was empty. Others had no AC... only in the rooms showing Sound of Freedom. Other complaints included claims of lights being turned on mid-film, extremely late start times, and other attempts to harass audiences into leaving the theatre instead of viewing the film.

2. Discovering Truth – The Thayer’s Experience

Much like Sound of Freedom, Matt & Joy Thayer’s film The Trump I Know was intentionally slowed, their social media accounts were vaporized, and the release of the film was held back by other parties to prevent it from coming out before the election.

Why is this film such a threat to the elites?

Matt & Joy explain that they were not supporters of Trump in 2016 and were actually wary of him. However, after his election, they watched his presidency closely and noticed a strange trend.

No matter what Trump did in regard to policy, the mainstream media would attack him and smear his name. They became confused because the Trump they saw, according to the media, was not the Trump they saw when studying his policies or listening to his full speeches.

“Joe Knopp went out to Capitol Hill to testify and share and he became friends with Laura Trump. And then the more he got to know the Trumps and the Trump family and the Trump administration, he’s saying what I’m hearing over here in mainstream media and what I’m personally experiencing is something entirely different. Is there any way that we can do a documentary about the women in the business, the family, and the campaign? And so we were brought on to the project and that was how we got the opportunity to do this.” –Joy Thayer

Because they had noticed that there was a whole side to Trump's story that was being ignored and even suppressed, Matt & Joy decided to fight for truth and began work on The Trump I Know.

Very quickly the Thayers found that the people around President Trump all spoke very highly of him and shared stories of how much of a positive impact he had on their lives. Many of these people were the women who worked alongside him, a president who had been smeared as anti-woman, yet they claimed he had been a positive force for advancement in their lives.

It is no wonder the mainstream media was desperate to silence this film as it would reveal their lies and prove that he was an individual who had garnered the respect of those who spent time with him.

 Attention: The mainstream media had painted President Trump in a negative light, but the other side of the story is quite the opposite

3. The Trump I Know

The Trump I Know is a dangerous film for the Elites because it brings truth to light and was produced by a team who discovered this truth for themselves by seeing through the lies of the mainstream media.

The documentary includes interviews with many of the people who have been close to President Trump over the last few years, especially during his first campaign and his first term.

Because these people tell a version of the Trump story that goes against the official narrative of the mainstream media, the film was heavily attacked from all sides.

“We hit the deadlines to get it out to the aggregate service so that it could get out to the streaming platforms intending for it to be released prior to the 2020 election. And they slow-rolled us through the process. There's just really no explanation for it because most of the time it's a couple of week process and it took weeks and weeks and weeks until it just didn't come out until after the election. And then as we tried to put it out on social media, which is where you have to advertise these days, we couldn't even give Facebook money to advertise this product. And so they marginalize us. Our Twitter account was completely vaporized, which is ridiculous because really the PR people that were helping us at the time were just posting positive pictures about the president and how he's interacting with women quotes from the movie. And yet Twitter decided to just completely destroy our account. It's gone. We have nothing. There's nothing left. And so when you live in a world like that, it's like, how do you get a product out that goes against the narrative?." –Matt Thayer

Using everything in their arsenal the mainstream media tries to kill films like The Trump I Know before anyone even hears of them. They succeeded in preventing it from reaching the general public before the 2020 Election, but they did not stop there.

Attention: The mainstream media tried to snuff out The Trump I Know film to protect their narrative so people would continue to see Trump as a villain.

4. From Friend to Foe – How Trump's Closest Friends Betrayed Him

The mainstream media was supported by multiple people who had once been friends of President Trump who had suddenly turned their backs on him when he decided to run for president in the 2016 election.

Many liberal politicians, business leaders, and media personalities who had frequented Trump's establishments or had regularly attended his parties turned on him and began to slander and smear his name on public television.

"These are people that wanted to be next to him at cocktail parties and be invited to, you know, the Trump properties and were, you know, sporting around photos with him. And then all of a sudden, like you said, he took on conservative positioning and started running as a Republican. And Katrina Pierson talks about that in our film. You know, she says, you know, why are- people go like, why is he taking things so personally? And she's like, because it is personal. These people have, you know, known me and come after me. And now I'm like, wait a minute. Hold on a second. I've hung out with you, and now all of a sudden you're blasting me, and these things that you're saying, you know, they're not true. She said that's where it kind of comes from. It is a little bit personal to him." –Matt Thayer

The Trump I Know film reveals the truth coming from those who did not betray him and naturally paints the traitors in a bad light. This creates many enemies for the film who do not want the truth about their relationship with Trump to come out.

People who had walked with him for years and then turned on him because of his conservative views willingly lied about him.

Everyone has experienced betrayal in their lives, but few people ever witness betrayal to the degree that President Trump has as a massive amount of his old network are members of the elite and have decided to remain in those positions instead of helping him work to make America great again and drain the swamp.

Attention: Donald Trump was betrayed by many of the people he once called friends because he believes he is doing what is right. The media won't show that side of the story.

5. Surviving Cancel Culture

In their efforts to protect themselves and their heinous narrative, the elite worked to silence The Trump I Know, but they were so afraid of it that they attempted to silence the team that worked on it and prevent it from ever reaching the people.

“We got an email saying that our sweatshirts and t-shirts didn’t comply with their community standards... they were telling us that it was the buying or selling of alcohol or the buying or selling of live animals... I said, this is a sweatshirt, this is a women’s t-shirt, you know, this kind of thing. And they didn’t even respond. And they said that we do not comply and they just removed our whole store. And so then when you think that you’re going to be able to provide a service for people and you’re going to be able to do all this stuff and they cut that off and you have put money into the making of these sweatshirts and t-shirts, and now you’ve got inventory and the making of the film. We brought in investors for that film. This was not a Trump-financed film and we’ve got investors that we need to make sure that they are taken care of... But our real concern was, if they can do that for a film that doesn’t vilify anybody, that just tells a story about the president, what are they going to do next? You know, we’re really concerned... that they’re going after the American people because they know that that’s a pain point that’s going to hurt them so that they can keep their mouth shut and they can control them that way.” –Joy Thayer

Matt & Joy Thayer realized that the elites had the power to cancel them and attack their wallets, hoping to crush their spirits and prevent them from releasing the film, and when they kept fighting, the elites came for their finances.

Suddenly, it became clear, the Elites intend to use economic warfare to subdue the people and prevent anyone from standing up against their tyranny.

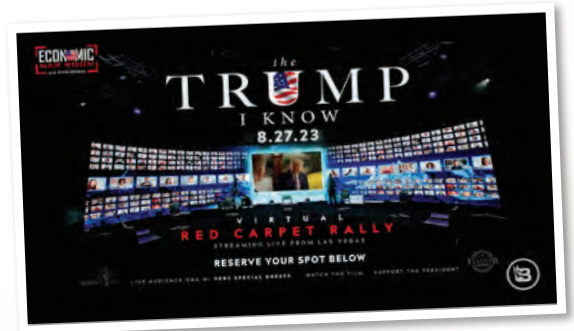

If political opponents or even American citizens who share different political or religious views can be financially attacked to keep them silent, then the First Amendment is in jeopardy.

Attention: Your First Amendment right is under attack as the elite are attacking anyone who tries to share anything that goes against their narrative.

6. The Trump I Know – Virtual Release

In the face of these challenges, the Thayers and their team have hatched a plan to ensure that The Trump I Know is seen by as many Americans as possible before the 2024 election.

This is especially important as the mainstream media is actively supporting the claim that Trump is guilty of all the charges they are making against him.

The Trump I Know will be aired live on a virtual premier giving access to people around the country and the world so that Americans can hear the stories and perspectives of those who actually know President Trump personally.

“It’s a virtual premiere. There’s going to be an in-person audience, but only about 300 people will actually be able to join us in person in the studio. But we can host up to 500,000 people online to watch the event. And there’s interactive capabilities. You’ll be able to actually ask questions even from the comfort of your own home to the people that are going to be on the stage. We’re going to have some amazing guests with us. We’re working on getting some other amazing guests to be a part of it. Everybody’s talking about it. It’s all over Truth Social. So it’s going to be an amazing, amazing kind of really cool LEDs got to have all of the people that are watching online with their little boxes watching and everything. It’s just going to be really cool.” –Matt Thayer

Kevin and the Thayers joked that the event will be like a giant Zoom meeting where viewers can ask questions and there will be multiple special guests, speakers, and performers. This will be a film premiere unlike any other.

Tickets range from $20-25 dollars for virtual Tickets to $500 for in-person VIP tickets. You can get your tickets and view the trailer for The Trump I Know here.

Attention: In the face of adversity, The Trump I Know will be airing in a virtual premiere so that Americans can hear the stories of those closest to the most famous and controversial man in the world, President Trump.
