

A Dark Future or a Brighter Tomorrow

Shadows spread over the land as a great darkness seeps its way into the hearts of the people. Our beloved land dries up as billows of smoke rise from mighty flames. A once vibrant community with a bright future is overshadowed by the threat of impending doom and the depravity of its inhabitants.

It sounds like the introduction of a fantasy novel where an unexpected hero rises amid the darkest times to save their people from an overpowering evil. But in this story, we are the people. Darkness has gained power and our once great nation is filled with fear as the future we hoped for is now bleak. However, like the protagonists of every great story, we can be the heroes who save the world.

In this briefing we will discuss the following:

- » Darkness Rising – The Building Threats Against Liberty
- » Global Elite & World Domination
- » Benefits of Technology & Defeating the Great Reset
- » Artificial Intelligence

YOUR MISSION: Understand the threats posed by globalist elites and their plans to conquer the world and subjugate the people using new technologies.

⚠ ATTENTION: New technology has provided global elites with the last pieces they need to control the world from a distance, but it also provides us with tools to fight back.

Ep. 7-258 (OSINT) Open-Sourced Intelligence Report. This briefing includes a conversation between Kevin Freeman and Justin Haskins. Justin is a friend of the Economic War Room® and an American Patriot.

Justin Haskins is the director of the Socialism Research Center at The Heartland Institute (a national free market think tank) and a widely published writer and political commentator. He also serves as the editor-in-chief of StoppingSocialism.com, one of the world's largest and most influential publications devoted to challenging socialism.

Haskins writes frequently for FoxNews.com and works as a contributor for The Hill, Newsweek, and Townhall. He has appeared on television and radio more than 300 times, on shows like Tucker Carlson Tonight, Fox & Friends, and the Glenn Beck Program.

Haskins is the author of the Amazon best-selling book Socialism Is Evil: The Moral Case Against Marx's Radical Dream (2018) and was the first contributor to Glenn Beck's Arguing with Socialists (2020), a New York Times best-selling book. Haskins is also the co-author, with Beck, of The Great Reset: Joe Biden and the Rise of Twenty-First Century Fascism (2022), which appeared on numerous bestselling books lists, including those of the New York Times, USA Today, and Wall Street Journal. In 2023 Haskins and Beck teamed up again to publish a new book about emerging technologies called Dark Future: Uncovering the Great Reset's Terrifying Next Phase.

1. Darkness Rising

In every fantasy novel, the evil forces gain power working together to oppress good people. They use their wealth and power to gain the upper hand and all but snuff out resistance. Hope seems lost.

In our modern world, elites have created a dark conglomerate of mega-corporations, banks, and governments designed to empower the elites and subjugate the people.

These tyrannical moves have been made before, but never to this scale. Elites around the world are working together to strip everyone else of wealth and siphon it for themselves.

“How are they going to seize control and power and wealth and property in the future? Using emerging technologies. And that’s what Dark Future is all about. It goes through and highlights all of these incredible plans, statements, academic reports, government proposals, policies that have been put into place that very clearly illustrate that Davos, the Biden administration, big corporations, big banks, all of these BlackRock investment management firms like BlackRock, they’re all working together to design emerging technologies so that they have more power, control and wealth over your life... that’s why the future is looking dark right now.” –Justin Haskins

The groups behind these twisted plans can be found in places of power around the world as this dark creature has twisted its tentacles to gain global control.

Here are some buzzwords that point to the encroaching darkness the whole world:

- » World Economic Forum (WEF) – Klaus Schwab’s elite club where they plot our destruction.
- » The Great Reset – The WEF’s plan to reset the world and create a new world order.
- » ESG – The economic warfare strategy to trick the West into willingly giving up their rights and destroying their culture.
- » Wall Street Mafia – BlackRock, State Street, Vanguard, and others who manipulate global markets and corporations to shift culture.
- » Cancel Culture – The (sometimes voluntary via self-censorship) surrender of free speech.
- » Central Bank Digital Currency (CBDC) – The proposed future of currency that is programmed by the elites to control the people.
- » Vaccines that could have a multitude of side effects (intended or unintended).
- » Food Control – The elites’ control of the food supply to make people fully dependent upon them.

2. Global Elite & World Domination

Conversations about these topics have only recently become the norm, but those with nefarious plans have been plotting for a long time.

“It’s not a brand-new plan... the plan has been around for a long time. You start your book, and you quote Eisenhower about the military-industrial complex... You may have quoted Cleon Skousen in The Naked Communist (regarding the 45 goals of the Communist Party) and so forth. That’s been around for a long time, but now they have the technological capability to actually enforce it, something that’s never existed before in history. You know, we read in the Book of Revelation about, you know, the ability for an Antichrist to control what we buy and sell. But now that technology exists and it exists in a virtual world that can control everyone, anywhere on the planet.” –Kevin Freeman

Pieces of the technology needed to implement a one-world government have been developed over the last century that would enable a small group of elites to effectively manage the daily lives of the millions of people they control.

With the technology of the digital age, they will soon have everything they need to not just watch but also control the daily activities of the average person. With complete control over currency using CBDC they will be able to shift culture as they please by funding movements and defunding any and all opposition.

Justin Haskins explains that “authoritarians used to have to mass murder people to control them... if they are not stopped by the people, they eventually turn to start mass murdering people. They start imprisoning people, they start hardcore crackdowns. And the reason for that is not because those authoritarian regimes in the past are somehow worse than the authoritarians that we see today. Morally, they’re really not. The difference is they felt like they had to. That was the only way to control people. It was the only way to silence people. It was the only way to centralize power.”

In today’s society, technology allows the elites of our governments, corporations, banks, etc. to work together in a “sort of non-bloody authoritarian regime.”

The elites of today are able to consolidate power and exert control without the need for violence. Much of the Western world has already compromised so much for so many years that there is not much left. In a few years what had once been free nations will have little memory of liberty.

Everything that has been a source of liberty is being replaced with technology that feels good but slowly weakens your resolve to challenge their authority.

“Even in the religion realm. You can chat with Jesus. You’re actually chatting with a woke/leftist AI-controlled response, which is “god” telling you what to do. And that’s essentially what they’re trying to achieve here.” –Kevin Freeman

This reveals the true intentions of these elites, they want to play god, even to the point of pretending to be Him so they can lead people astray.

⚠ Attention: The global elite are using modern technology to enslave the masses by exerting control without direct violence.

3. Benefits of Technology & Defeating the Great Reset

While the elites intend to use this technology for evil, the technology itself is simply a tool, and in the hands of the righteous, it can be used to improve life for all people.

One major point is that instant communication technology has allowed for conversations and the sharing of information in a way that has never been seen before.

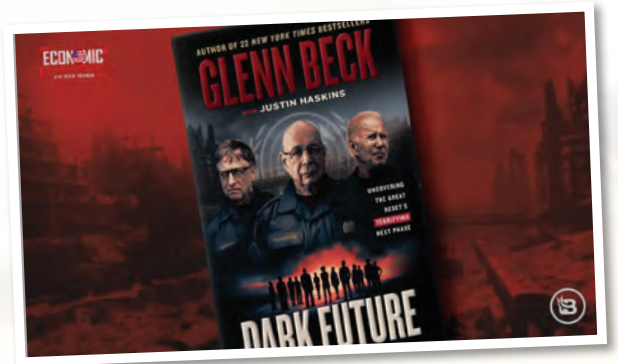

“The sort of technology of the future, really even the technology of the present has made conversations possible... you wouldn’t have even known about this had this happened with the media landscape that existed 30 years ago... because everyone who controlled the media back then would have been involved in this kind of thing today that we’re seeing. The Internet networks like The Blaze TV and others are allowing people to have access to this information. And that is the biggest thing that you could possibly do, is sharing this information with other people. If regular folks find out about this, there is no way that this is going to go forward in the United States of America. The average American does not want to be controlled... The only way this happens is if people remain in the dark. So learning about it and telling people about it is the most important thing that we can do at this point in time. And I really do believe that will go a long way to stopping it.” –Justin Haskins

A great example is that Tucker Carlson has become a Twitter news phenomenon after he was released from Fox News earlier this year. His Twitter (now “X”) program has seen millions more views per video than Fox News gets.

For an individual to be capable of outperforming a major media corporation by simply posting original content that is instantly accessible to anyone in the world is an incredible amplifier for free speech.

The internet and social media have made the consumption of current news incredibly accessible which empowers the people to keep the government in check as the truth can be found by sifting through the stories of those who were actually there.

Justin’s books can reach more people today than ever before in human history, and this has helped to wake people up to the reality of this sinister plot of the elites to crush and control the people.

“It’s already making an impact. The minority communities reject this outright. They don’t want a group of mostly white, elite male oppressors controlling every aspect of their lives. So, minorities are waking up. Young people are waking up. ‘Wait a minute. What do you mean PayPal’s going to take money out of my account because I said the wrong thing on the internet?’ The natural inclination of young people to be a little bit rebellious is actually beneficial here. We need people to seek out and search for liberty. And so, with that, we’ve got to break ESG. And we’re seeing that. Justin, the work that you’re doing is causing states to reject ESG.” –Kevin Freeman

Justin’s work has helped people see beyond the veil and begin to stand together to fight back against the tyrants. In early 2022 when the Great Reset book was published, there was very little movement by state legislators in regard to ESG practices. Since the release of the book, about 25 states have proposed bills or signed laws that challenge ESG on the state level, with some states even outlawing all ESG practices.

Attention: Many people are still unaware of the threats. But we can use modern technology to fight back by reaching the masses and educating them. Collaboration has never been more scalable.

4. Artificial Intelligence

A major technology that has entered the scene, and many claim is here to stay, is Artificial Intelligence (AI).

AI poses many threats but can also be used to fight for Liberty.

“They are designing artificial intelligence so that it will give them the answers that they want in the future. So that when they put AI in charge of, say, lending decisions, and you go to get a loan for a new car or for your new business or you just want to buy a house or something like that, AI is the thing determining whether you get the loan or not. You’re just going to find out either you got it, or you didn’t get it, and you’re not going to know why AI made the decision.

But the people designing AI are making sure that it’s giving the decisions that they want, that it’s being produced using algorithms and it’s being fueled by data that has been, in some cases manipulated in order to enhance the goals of elites.” –Justin Haskins

AI cannot leave the bounds within which it was created, this means the elites can create an AI for evil, but we can also create an AI that does good.

If Liberty is coded into the AI, it cannot stray from it. AI that has been coded to protect people has the potential to drastically improve life.

Chat GPT (which some believe has been coded for evil) already has benefits as it is able to improve the productivity of people who use it.

- » Days of research can be reduced to one day.
- » Formal writing and editing can be rapidly completed.
- » Instructions for how to start a business can be clearly defined.

Doctors can use AI to find more similar cases to their current patient when dealing with rare diseases.

“Artificial Intelligence and these other emerging technologies have the capability to expand people’s lives so that they live longer, so that people are living better, so that we’re producing more products and services at lower cost. The quality of life is going to go up. There’s going to be less disease. Life, in many ways, has the potential to be incredible in the future, but only if the technology is designed with a foundation of individual rights built into it. If we don’t have individual freedom built into the emerging technologies as a core value, then it will be used as an authoritarian tool to control people’s lives.” –Justin Haskins

AI does not have to be scary. Like any other tool, it can be incredibly useful in the right hands and with the right moral code. It is essential that we build AI that protects people and fights for liberty.

Here in the Economic War Room®, we are working with industry experts to develop Liberty-infused AI to win the economic war for future technology.

Attention: Artificial Intelligence can be used for good or evil, it is essential we get ahead of the global elite and build AI that will defend the people.
