

Hollywood Culture War & The Miracle in East Texas

Hollywood was once the darling of America, where the pinnacle of culture was produced, and family-friendly entertainment ruled. Gone are the olden days when films, tv shows, cartoons, etc. were written with healthy values to inspire virtue in the viewers. Instead, modern media produces woke garbage with the intent of destroying what once made American culture great.

In the midst of such evils, God's light shines brighter. Films like Sound of Freedom have proven that the American people want truth and can see through the lies of the elites. It is essential that we wield our God-given power to force culture forward into a healthy and brighter future. This is an opportunity for us to weaponize our giving, spending, and investing to show Hollywood that only good films with good values will be profitable.

There are many incredible stories in history, like those seemingly insignificant people who accidentally saved America and the world nearly 100 years ago, that would make for wonderful films inspiring healthy values. It is time Hollywood made those films again.

In this briefing we will discuss the following:

- » Texas Oil & WWII
- » Miracle in East Texas – Starring Kevin Sorbo
- » Lionhood – Healthy Masculinity for Young Boys (Children's book)
- » Hollywood's Culture War & Investing in Purity

YOUR MISSION: Learn about the culture war in Hollywood and the opportunities for you to weaponize your money to support entertainment with good values.

 ATTENTION: Great films are made with healthy values and exemplary Godly virtues.

Ep. 7-262 (OSINT) Open-Sourced Intelligence Report. This briefing includes a conversation between Kevin Freeman and Kevin Sorbo. Kevin Sorbo is a friend of the Economic War Room® and an American Patriot.

Famous for his work as the titular character on the number-one, worldwide hit TV series, "Hercules: The Legendary Journeys", Kevin Sorbo always strives to bring hopeful messages and meaningful entertainment to all. After Hollywood's wokeness spread wide, Kevin forged his own path. Already a successful actor, director, and producer he founded Sorbo Studios to breathe traditional values and uplifting content back into the fabric of American culture. As an author, producer, and mentor, Kevin is dedicated to creating stories that inspire and nurture the soul. Kevin Sorbo is happily married to his bride of over 25 years, Sam Sorbo, and they have three nearly grown children whom they homeschooled.

1. Texas Oil & WWII

In the early 1930s, the discovery of the East Texas oil field unveiled the largest known reserve in the world. Some have considered this find to be a miracle.

The East Texas oil field was discovered just in time for the field to be properly equipped to pump the oil efficiently before America was suddenly thrust into the second World War. Had the field been discovered later than it was, the infrastructure would not yet have been in place.

However, simply having the oil, and refining it did not mean you could get it to its final destination.

"Within one month of the Pearl Harbor attack and America entering the war, and within 22 days, Nazi subs sank 73 of 74 tankers shuttling oil from Texas through the Gulf of Mexico to the East Coast. That oil was meant to supply our fighting soldiers over on the European battlefields. The US so desperately needed the oil that we secretly constructed a 24-inch pipeline, 1254 miles to bring the oil where it could be dispensed to the European stage. Builders stealthily completed it in only 13 months. They called the pipeline the Big Inch, and it carried more than 350 million barrels of crude oil to the Atlantic coast. This allowed fuel to be shipped overseas to the Allies. Therefore, it eventually was German tanks that ran out of fuel, not the Allies'. Texan H.L. Hunt said, and Winston Churchill agreed, The Allies floated to victory on a sea of East Texas oil." –Kevin Freeman

The construction of the Big Inch, an oil pipeline that spans from Texas to New Jersey was a life-saving game-changer for allied forces on the western front. The fuel produced and shipped to the western front powered Allied advances and Nazi divisions began to run low on fuel.

Much of the war was decided not by battle but by resource supply lines and the strategies employed to capture or destroy Nazi oil supplies.

Today the Big Inch and its counterpart, the Little Inch, are still in use transporting Texas oil to New Jersey to supply the northeast.

 Attention: The discovery of East Texas oil was providential as it provided the necessary resources for the Allies to find victory on the European continent.

2. Miracle in East Texas

This story ends in great triumph as America was able to see victory in Europe and eventually in the Pacific as well. However, this incredible story began quite differently.

The Miracle in East Texas film, starring Kevin Sorbo, tells the incredible story of how God used two unlikely individuals to save the nation and the world from the greatest threat of global tyranny in centuries.

“It is about these two con men, played by me and John Ratzenberger, that went through Oklahoma and Texas wooing widows out of their money on fake oil wells. They would sell 500% of the shares to Claire, Dry Hole, and move on while they accidentally strike oil in Kilgore, Texas... (This) ends up being the largest oil find in the history of the world, right in the heart of the Depression in 1930. And while they’re sitting around waiting for their trial, in walks a gentleman who offers them a deal that’s too good for them to turn down. The only problem is they don’t get to keep any of the oil and the profits that they found. My character even asks them, ‘What about us? We found the oil.’ And he goes, ‘Oh, son, you’re going to get your freedom, and freedom ain’t free.’ I think we’ve heard that before. But I think people need to keep hearing that all the time, especially in what we’re doing to today’s world.” –Kevin Sorbo

The film shares the harsh reality of life in the Great Depression, but even amid such darkness and suffering, God’s hand is at work.

God tends to use the foolish to confound the wise. In this story, God uses two wicked con men who are scamming widows. These are not the types of men one would expect Him to use. However, God had a special plan for these two foolish individuals, preparing a nation for a colossal war.

“The thing with Sound of Freedom, it’s not really a movie for seven and eight-year-olds. This (Miracle in East Texas) is more of a family movie overall... when Hollywood came out and attacked Sound of Freedom, I looked at my wife, Sam. I said, ‘you would think this is one subject that Hollywood agrees upon, that sex trafficking children is not a good thing.’ But apparently, they’re all for it because they went after the whole movie so incredibly... people said... ‘Hollywood, we’re going to go support this movie.’ So, we’re hoping we get the same thing with Miracle in East Texas because it is a wonderful family movie. People stop me all the time. It’s not because of Hercules or my other series Andromeda, it’s because of Soul Surfer, God’s Not Dead, What If, Let There Be Light... That’s what people stop me for. And they say, ‘Please make more movies like this.’ Well, here’s one that’s like that. I hope you get out there because we need your help.” –Kevin Sorbo

This family-friendly film will inspire viewers to love America and see the hand of God at work in their lives. If God can use two wicked con men, why can’t he use you or your kids?

Attention: Miracle in East Texas is a really great family-friendly film based on the true story of how God used the unexpected to save our nation and the world.

3. Lionhood – Healthy Masculinity for Young Boys

Miracle in East Texas is only one way that Kevin Sorbo is fighting against the woke mob in Hollywood. Kevin also recognized a great need to educate and inspire young boys in healthy masculinity.

The Woke mob has been pushing femininity on boys and calling masculinity toxic. This culture, paired with the lack of fathers in the homes, has created a void for young boys who are unable to discover who God created them to be.

Boys are either convinced that their masculine desires to be strong, confident, and ambitious are toxic, or that submissive, quiet, and complacent are better virtues. Children’s shows, books, and films are propaganda tools from a woke mob that would rather have “drag queen story time” than allow Kirk Cameron to read his book to children.

“Kirk Cameron is part of the BraveBooks family as well... he got attacked and shunned from certain libraries across the country for reading a children’s book... These same public libraries were okay with drag queens reading to kids. So that’s a head-scratcher for you and me and so many other millions. In my new book, I talk about the attack on masculinity. And I say embrace masculinity. We need our boys to grow up to be strong men... we need to wake up the lions because the sheep are going to be the sheep and we need the lions to get out there. You’re a lion. I’m a lion. I know I am. I do walk the road less traveled... So, we came out with the book, and it’s called The Test of Lion Hood. It’s a story about a little boy who has to save his little sister’s life when she gets cut by a very poisonous plant out in the mountains... everything he learned from his parents, and certainly from his father, was how to get past the fear and get past the struggles and obstacles that were thrown in front of him to find a way to save his little sister’s life. And it’s a wonderful story. It’s not negative. It’s not attacking anybody. It’s not attacking any groups. It’s just saying, let boys be boys, let girls be girls, let kids be kids.” –Kevin Sorbo

Both Kirk Cameron and Kevin Sorbo have joined up with BraveBooks to assist in their mission to produce wholesome stories that celebrate healthy families and honor traditional values.

Kevin Sorbo’s book The Test of Lionhood tells the story of a young lion (Lucas) whose sister has been poisoned and he has to save the day. The story shares meaningful nuggets of wisdom from Lucas’s parents that shaped his character and personality so that he would have the strength, courage, and confidence to save his sister’s life.

“I’m actually going to some elementary schools. My first one is going to be up in New Jersey. I told Kirk, ‘If you think you get attacked at public libraries, wait till I go into the lion’s den, so to speak.’ Reading my book about LionHood to a lot of these public-school teachers who have been raised in a system to be pretty much anti-America and mean. You know, when I was in school, my dad taught math and biology. My public-school teachers didn't tell me how to vote. They didn't tell me not to believe in God. They taught the subjects that they were brought in to teach. And you see what's going on in our public schools today. It just gets worse and worse every year. And I'm going to probably be attacked pretty heavy, but I'm ready to take it on. It's going to be fun." –Kevin Sorbo

Kevin Sorbo is committed to raising up the next generation of strong men who honor God, love their families, and live a life of service to others. Life can be very difficult and the purpose of The Test of Lionhood is to equip young boys with the tools they need to overcome adversity and face the trials of life with courage.

As Kevin Sorbo steps into the lion's den, keep him in your prayers and support his work and the work of BraveBooks as they ensure that the next generation has strong men and healthy family values.

Attention: Kevin Sorbo's new book The Test of Lionhood shares an inspiring story of noble character for young boys and girls to learn about healthy masculinity.

4. Hollywood's Culture War & Investing in Purity

Kevin Sorbo's rude awakening to the decline of American culture, the rise of the woke mob, and the need for healthy media came when some of his former colleagues in Hollywood informed him that they could no longer work with him because of his political and religious views.

It is laughable that those who scream for tolerance are intolerant of anyone who holds views they disagree with. As Kevin Sorbo says, "truth is kryptonite to these people." Hypocrisy seems to have become the religious duty of the Hollywood elites.

“I still love the industry and I’m going to go do my own thing. For about the last ten or eleven years, I’ve been doing my own movies. And because the independent market is really growing, it’s not just Sorbo Studios. I get called by other studios that want to work with me because they’re like-minded. They want to do movies that Hollywood used to do. And that’s what Miracle in East Texas is like. This is a movie that Hollywood would have done fifteen or twenty years ago. Now they don’t want to touch something like this. It’s weird to me because I don’t harbor that anger and hatred towards them. I really don’t. You have a different point of view. You’re an atheist. You’re a Democrat. Whatever. Let’s have a discussion about it. Just because you yell louder than me doesn’t mean you’re right.” –Kevin Sorbo

As the war against truth has increased in its intensity, Kevin Sorbo and those like-minded individuals who have joined him in projects like The Miracle in East Texas only gain more fervor in their battle for truth and righteousness in media and entertainment.

All things were created by God and are intended to be used for His glory, Kevin Sorbo and his friends have determined to use media and entertainment to glorify God and inspire people around the world.

In the media market, a film is judged on its profitability. Studios like Disney have lost millions of dollars on recent productions because they have produced woke trash. Meanwhile, films like Sound of Freedom have seen massive success as people around the world supported their work. Why? Because they produced a good film that inspires people to stand up for what is right and fight against evil.

“You get to vote with your ticket, right? You get to pick what you like. And our mutual friend Ted Baehr has proven over and over and over, given equal footing and opportunity, a PG film is going to outperform an R-rated film every time. And you’re making good films. I went to see Oppenheimer and was embarrassed that I saw it because it has this blatant, horrifying, unnecessary, gratuitous sex scene. My glasses are off, my wife’s next to me and we’re hiding our faces from it. It’s a great true story about World War Two and how we won it. But I was ashamed that I saw it. And I was ashamed to be there with my wife and having to hide from that. Whereas your movie Miracle in East Texas is another true story about how we won World War Two. It's more lighthearted and I'd be happy to take my kids... It's a great movie. It makes a huge difference if you have family-friendly intentions like Charlton Heston did, like Cecil B. DeMille and all the great filmmakers of the past."—Kevin Freeman

Miracle in East Texas is another opportunity for Americans to weaponize their spending and send a message to Hollywood that entertainment should be free of woke nonsense.

WHY YOU SHOULD CARE

- » Globalist elites are trying to use Hollywood as a propaganda tool.
- » Woke nonsense has destroyed many of the once-great children's film producers.
- » Miracle in East Texas tells the moving story of how God used unlikely men to help save America and the world in WWII.
- » The Test of Lionhood inspires young boys to become strong men and challenge the lies preached by modern society.
- » We are supposed to steward the resources God has given to us. This is an opportunity to weaponize your money to shift culture back to God.

ACTION STEPS:

1. Buy tickets to Miracle in East Texas to support God-honoring, family-friendly entertainment.
2. If you have young boys in your family, or grandchildren look for ways to educate and inspire young boys in healthy masculinity. Be aware of drag queen story times and the agendas being pushed.
3. Buy a copy of The Test of Lionhood, a great gift for the children in your family. Pro-God. Pro-America books club families can trust.
4. Share this Economic Battle Plan™ with as many people as you can to inspire them to support good, family-friendly entertainment.
5. PRAY for God to restore the culture of our nation and protect the minds and hearts of our little ones in these trying times.

ONGOING ACTION STEPS:

1. Seek opportunities to inspire other Americans to stand up for what is right.
2. Send them this Economic Battle Plan™ and ask them what they are doing to stand for America and Liberty!
 - » Elect Politicians that understand the need to preserve American Liberty.
 - » Encourage and ask your elected officials to educate themselves.
 - » Ask them how they are working to strengthen our education system and reverse the push for Marxist indoctrination.

“This is a way to wage economic warfare. If you’re sick of the nonsense like Oppenheimer or Barbie or all of that... Sound of Freedom beat Indiana Jones. If we can make Miracle in East Texas, the next Sound of Freedom, and we do this repeatedly, the studios will begin to realize people don’t want garbage. I’m telling you, vote with your ticket, go to the theater and see this.”
