1. Thought Leaders Featured in 2023

This year in the Economic War Room, we have featured some amazing guests who have shared insights into major issues that we face as patriotic Americans, and potential solutions to those problems.

One of our earliest guests was Eric Metaxas.

“Eric Metaxas is an amazing guy. He talked about the Holocaust, and he talked about standing up against it and how the church failed in World War Two. And he said, we’re seeing the same kind of things happening right now. That was in January, well ahead of Hamas’s attack on Israel, well ahead of the college students that are starting to be anti-Semitic and yelling, ‘Death to Israel,’ and, you know, the whole chants that they’re doing to wipe Israel off the map.” –Kevin Freeman

Further study on the potential for conflict in the Middle East came from guests Tommy Waller and John Guandolo.

Tommy Waller is an expert from the Center for Security Policy and John Guandolo is an expert on radical Islamic terrorism.

These predictions of rising tension in the Middle East came eight to nine months before the horrific attack Israel endured on October 7th.

Following Tommy and John, Ted Malloch came to discuss the Death of Wall Street.

Ted explained that Wall Street had gone Woke and was no longer focused on profits and explained how Wokeism was damaging major American companies. This was months before Disney, Bud Light, and Target saw massive stock plunges due to their woke products and marketing ads.

“This is in Imprimis magazine. This is October 2023. ‘Why the CIA No Longer Works and how to fix it.’ It features our friend Sam Faddis. Sam was our third guest this year in the Economic War Room, and Sam really nailed it on what the CIA was and should be, and where it’s gone off the reservation, so to speak.” –Kevin Freeman

Continuing on the topic of federal overreach, Mike Waller from the Center for Security Policy explained that Free Speech is Now a Crime.

Michele Bachmann followed that up by revealing the sinister plot of the World Health Organization as they sought to capture American sovereignty by taking complete control over any and all health crises. This was the World Health Organization’s plan to become a one-world government.

Michelle was followed by two military experts, Lt. Gen Steven Kwast and Lt. Col Allen West who provided situation reports on foreign threats and new technologies for the economic war we face.

Tom Klingenstein from the Claremont Institute joined us to explain wokeism and the dangers it presents to the fabric of our nation.

Chris Buskirk, author of America and the Art of the Possible, joined us to discuss America’s declining entrepreneurial spirit and the need for hard-working, creative Americans to innovate again.

“Paul Fitzpatrick, we talked to him also in March. He gave you a tool that you can use to identify excessively woke companies. So, you know where to shop and not to shop. Maybe where to invest and not to invest.” –Kevin Freeman

Congressman Louie Gohmert joined us to discuss the state of our nation and where we can look to for hope in these trying times.

Doug De Groote shared about the current market situation and how to develop healthy American values in your home to inspire the next generation of American leaders.

Gordon Chang warned us that China was going on a war footing and that they were sending military-age men across the border. Now we see the evidence, and he was right.

Frank Gaffney, author of The Indictment shared about the realities of the Covid pandemic and a plan to hold those responsible accountable for the millions of lives lost and the rights that were infringed.

Michael Maharrey of the 10th Amendment Center was a big endorser of Transactional Gold & Silver.

Larry Elder from California shared about his vision for America and how to prevent the nation's decline.

Our good friend Dr. Ben Carson came up with the term “economics is not brain surgery,” and explained the need for intelligent economic strategies to improve the lives of the American people.

Justin Danhof informed us of the new global monarchy organized by the major asset management firms, Blackrock, Vanguard, and State Street, and how they were using proxy voting to force companies to go Woke.

Floyd Brown of Western Journal featured his new book Counter Punch, describing a strategy to fight back against Woke tyranny.

Steve Deace had recently released his film Nefarious in which a demon-possessed man explains to a psychiatrist how easily demons have been able to use wokeism to deceive Western Civilization.

Scott Shepherd explained the incentives used to enforce Woke policies in corporate America.

Ken Ivory joined us to discuss states' rights and federal overreach in public land and warned us about the financialization of nature and the scam of Natural Asset Companies. He also expressed his support for Transactional Gold & Silver.

Jason Isaac from the Texas Public Policy Foundation explained the great energy scam and shared an incredible video of what life would be like without Oil and Gas.

Rick Green from Patriot Academy explained their plan for exposing this next generation to the truth of America's founding and the values and ideals of the great Men and Women who fought for Liberty.

Matt & Joy Thayer discussed their struggles in Hollywood as the Woke Mind virus has made it nearly impossible to produce content that tells true stories about controversial topics.

Ambassador Carla Sands (who served as the US ambassador to the Kingdom of Denmark) detailed the economic keys to success that America will need to implement.

Paul Blair from Liberty Pastors shared his testimony and the plan to activate American pastors to fight for liberty and inspire their churches to join the fight (like the churches did at the time of America's founding).

Justin Haskins, co-author with Glenn Beck of The Great Reset and Dark Future, warned about the threat of the World Economic Forum and how other globalist elites intend to destroy the world and enslave humanity.

“Jaco Booyens shed a bright light on the evils of human trafficking. You know, we had that big movie Sound of Freedom that came out, and Jaco explained to us how it's not just happening overseas, it's happening here in America. And it's economic warfare.” –Kevin Freeman

Ryan Binkley shared his plan for America and his hope for a brighter future for our nation.

Dr. Calvin Beisner discussed climate change and the tyrannical abuse of scientific literature and the hyperbolic statements made by politicians around the world.

Kevin Sorbo invited us to view his new film Miracle in East Texas which told the incredible true story of how the oil that won World War II was discovered.

John Luke Spittler and Andrew Crapuchettes each shared about Woke culture in corporate America and the need for healthy, Constitutionally-sound work environments. Andrew also explained his website <https://RedBalloon.work> which connects great companies to excellent employees.

Reggie Littlejohn informed us of the threat posed by the social credit score system that has been employed in China and how a similar system is trying to make its way to the U.S.

Michael Seifert of Public Square invited us into a parallel economy where patriotic Americans are protected from cancel culture and woke nonsense when they buy and sell their products online.

It has been fascinating to host these incredible guests who have given such excellent insight on a variety of impactful topics that have equipped and prepared us to fight for liberty.

Attention: Guests of the Economic War Room provided deep insights into major issues happening in our nation and around the world and helped to prepare us for what was coming.

2. Economic War Room Solutions

With the excellent resources brought to us by so many patriotic Americans, many problems were brought to light. However, there is no use in discussing problems if you do not intend to discuss solutions.

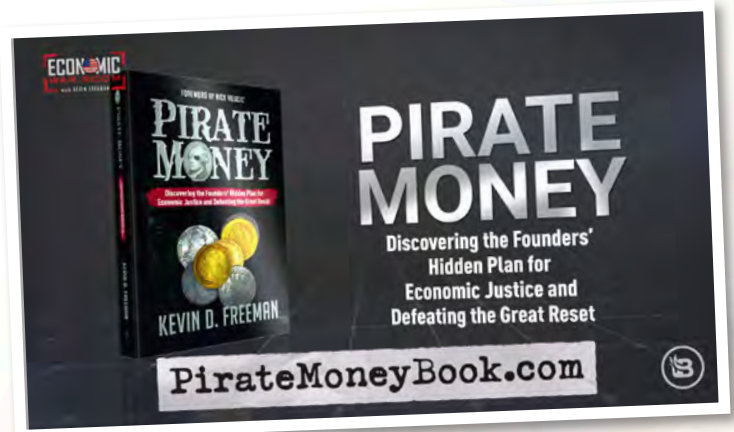

This year in the Economic War Room we have made massive strides in the development of some of our major solution ideas.

With special guest Lieutenant General Steven Kwast, we discussed his plan to build a Monster Garage in space that would prepare the US for the space war by allowing us to build in space instead of having to manufacture on earth and send it up by rocket.

Perhaps the most important solution for such a time as this is Transactional Gold & Silver.

“Gold and silver are not intended to be investments. They’re not intended to be buried. They’re intended to be transactional money. Now, I understand it’s hard to shave off a piece of a gold coin and to pay for a cup of coffee or a bag of groceries. But with modern technology and model legislation that we produced here at LibertyHawk Ranch for the Economic War Room that’s being looked at in Florida, Utah, Texas, and many others. A total of 18 states are looking at making gold and silver transactional, again, using modern technology like Glint or Kinesis or Load, and making it possible for you to put your gold or silver in a state-run depository and then get a debit card and go pay for all your goods and services with that, and then avoid taxation because it would be functional money under the IRS code. So you wouldn’t have to keep track of whether or not the value of your gold went up or down. This is, by the way, going to be on the Texas ballot in the Republican primary this February.” –Kevin Freeman

To get more information on this solution and the history behind it, get a copy of Kevin Freeman’s new book Pirate Money or go back through previous episodes 252-254 where Kevin explains the concepts in the book.

On top of all the work to prevent Central Bank Digital Currency, we are also working on a solution to the Woke mind virus in Hollywood.

On one side, Hollywood has gone Woke and is now producing garbage. On the other side, Christian and conservative films have often lacked quality for a myriad of reasons.

“We’re actually solving that culture problem again here at LibertyHawk Ranch. My colleague and business partner, Russell Lake, has had a dream of this for decades. Now we’re beginning to find a way to bring a studio concept together so that if you’ve got a good Hollywood filmmaker and he needs to get talent or writing or any of the other props or anything else that’s necessary, it’s like the old studios. You know, the ones that made the really great movies that were high-quality entertainment and had family-friendly values... We’re going to have a summit on that, and we will bring you information from that in the coming year.” –Kevin Freeman

Another solution we've been working on is for the coming food crisis. We have an episode that will air in 2024 with guest William Layton who shares about his new technology, based on nature, that he has been perfecting for the last 20 years. Now, William is ready to commercialize it so that his vertical farming method, which seemingly outperforms other methods in nutrition, yields, results, and organic rating (no chemicals at all), can be used around the world and provide better food, and healthier food, at lower costs.

This year also included solutions for producing water out of air, defeating ESG with LSV investing, reclaiming your proxy vote, how to identify Woke companies, where to go to find patriotic work environments, and where to shop in a patriotic parallel economy that does not fund the Woke agenda.

Our sponsors, Patriot Mobile and Timothy Plan have helped make all of this possible.

Patriot Mobile is a cell phone and network company that is not Woke and does not give money to fund the death of your values.

Timothy Plan is a Christian mutual fund company that understands the importance of liberty and American values.

Together with great guests, innovators, sponsors, and viewers, we as American patriots are able to fight back against the globalist elite, their Woke mob, and the decline of Western Civilization. Together we can save America and build a better and brighter future.

Attention: The focus of the Economic War Room is always solutions. We must face the challenges head-on and develop new strategies and technologies to save America and preserve Liberty.

3. Looking Ahead - 2024

As we approach the end of 2023 and prepare for 2024, there are clear signs of the threats ahead.

In 2024:

- » China could invade Taiwan.
- » Chinese migrants crossing the border could stir unrest in the US.
- » China could perpetuate the escalation of war in Israel.
- » Antisemitic protests on college campuses could spill over into riots like the BLM riots of 2020-21
- » The 2024 election will be contentious as antisemitism may split the democratic party.
- » Many are asking if a Civil War is on the horizon, regardless of the outcome of the presidential election.
- » Bank closures are likely as many banks are underwater.
- » A new round of wage-induced inflation is to be expected. It will come in waves.
- » We could see a global debt crisis.
- » We could also see another health crisis coming out of China.

“It could come across the border. It could come from long-Covid or vaccine injuries. Now, I hesitate to say that, but there’s such a thing as vaccine injuries. Maybe. You know, we may find that YouTube decides to censor this video because I made mention of that. But that’s why there’s a vaccine injury reporting system. The bottom line is that Economic War Room™ is here to look ahead with potential solutions to the problems we see coming. That’s why we wargame them here. We may have good investment opportunities where you can use your money to help preserve liberty, security, and values. This is the best half hour a week you could spend working together as a community of like-minded, liberty-loving men and women of faith. We can make a difference.” –Kevin Freeman
