

Solutions for Big Intel

Over the last century, many science-fiction authors have put to page imaginations of dystopian futures. Today, many of those fantasies have become reality as the three-letter agencies have been corrupted and are abusing their power.

The systems that were once used to protect the American people have flipped and are now coercing and enforcing behaviors that align with the political regime. This gross misuse of power cripples the authority of the American people and empowers the elites who seek to use the intelligence community to control the world.

In this briefing we will discuss the following:

- » Corrupt Intelligence
- » Intelligence Service – A Necessary Evil
- » Infiltration – The Rise of Marxism
- » Big Intel & How to Restore the Intelligence Community

YOUR MISSION: Learn about the gradual corruption of the American Intelligence Community and what can be done to restore them to their original purposes.

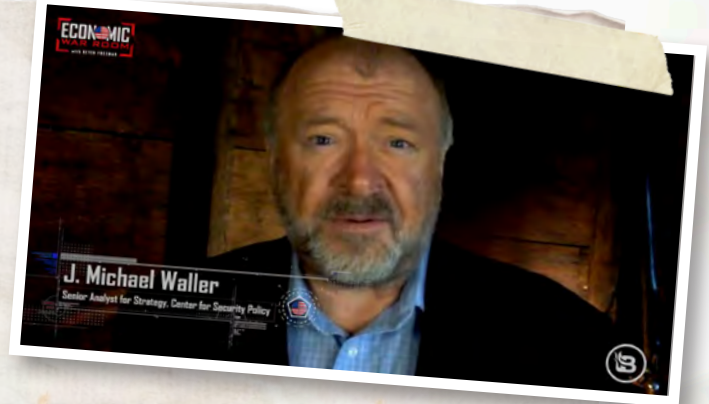

ATTENTION: Cultural Marxists have hijacked the American Intelligence Community and are using it to destroy Western civilization and Judeo-Christian values.

Ep. 8-283 (OSINT) Open-Sourced Intelligence Report. This briefing includes a conversation between Kevin Freeman and J. Michael Waller, Ph.D. Dr. Waller is a friend of the Economic War Room® and a patriot. He traveled with Kevin Freeman to the Middle East when Kevin was researching the role of the Muslim Brotherhood in economic warfare.

Dr. Waller is a Senior Analyst for Strategy at the Center for Security Policy. In fact, he wrote the first academic study of the Soviet KGB and its transformation during the post-Soviet transition. That was his doctoral thesis. It was titled "Secret Empire - The KGB in Russia Today." It was published in 1994.

Dr. Waller predicted that the former KGB would take over the Russian state. And after the Soviet collapse, he tried to work with the Russian parliament to turn its Human Rights Committee into a Frank Church-style committee that would investigate and uproot the KGB. But Boris Yeltsin didn't get it. Instead, Vladimir Putin grabbed power, just as Dr. Waller feared. He's written, edited, or contributed to numerous books and articles. Dr. Waller is one of America's leading experts on international security affairs.

1. Corrupt Intelligence

Since the early 2000s, the American intelligence community has increasingly garnered influence over American politics and the daily lives of the American people.

President Trump was accused of using these organizations against the people when they were sent to arrest rioters and looters. Since then, it has become clear that the intelligence community was used to influence the 2020 election in favor of Biden and evidence suggests the undue influence continues today.

The events of January 6th, 2021, shed light on the willingness of these organizations to toe the line of the Biden regime as ordinary citizens who committed no crimes have been the primary focus of major FBI investigations.

"Well, it's not just the CIA. You've got the FBI, too. And, you know, one of my nightmare horror stories is imagining that people come knocking at my door because I protected my child at a pro-life rally from some man wanted to accost her. So, I push him out of the way. And the next thing I know, guns are drawn, pointed at me." –Kevin Freeman Terrifying stories of families who face FBI S.W.A.T. teams simply because they protected their families and friends from a violent assault at a protest or rally.

Instead of tracking down major criminals or focusing resources on the fentanyl crisis or the border crisis, these agencies are actively hunting down American citizens based on their political views and their level of activism.

“It’s a doctrine. It’s not simply a different point of view. It’s an ideological doctrine that’s being imposed from the top. It started really under the Bush 43 administration during the global war on terror, when we were prevented from using the word jihadist to refer to jihadists in the courses that we were doing for the FBI and elsewhere, because it would offend the jihadists... it’s okay to drop iron on them and blow them up, it’s just not okay to offend them. And so, we had this weirdness happening. This is in the early 2000s. Uh, but when Bush centralized the intelligence community, which had been divided up so it could never become too powerful, he centralized it in the name of efficiency to make sure that no Americans were killed by terrorists, which was a noble goal, but it wasn’t thought through. So, when Obama came in, his ideological people then turned it into a political machine.” – J. Michael Waller

While these changes seem drastic, it is simply that they have become more visible since 2020 (the year of vision and hindsight).

The veil was pulled back and the great evils at work were revealed, and many people woke up and began doing their research. Much of what was once secretive is now made public because there are so many more people investigating and sharing information.

The once revered agencies, like the FBI, have been hijacked and are being used to suppress our freedoms, not secure them.

“The FBI was founded during the New Deal... You had more federal laws, and centralization of government. Now you need more federal law enforcement and investigations. But its predecessor was the Bureau of Investigation, founded before World War One to go after interstate crime and so forth. But it didn't really do much until a young man named J. Edgar Hoover... His job was to hunt down foreign communists and anarchists and radical socialists who had come to America in the big waves of immigration to overthrow our government. So it was Hoover's job to identify them, round them up, and deport them back to Russia. And he did a great job, made a lot of mistakes, but he did a great job. And his goal was to defend the United States against communism, Marxism, anarchism, and everything else. When he became director of the FBI, he took that mentality with him, meaning subversion was to overthrow our constitutional principles and our Judeo-Christian heritage. Well, no other FBI director has ever spoken like that before. And then the FBI gradually devolved into what it is today, where the subversives are people like you and me.” – J. Michael Waller

In the early days, the FBI was founded to investigate interstate crimes and ward off the subversive movements of Socialist spies.

During the Cold War, Soviet spies were sent to America to subvert the nation away from its founding principles, which made the nation strong.

The FBI played an integral role in protecting the American homeland from such threats. However, as the years passed by, younger agents were indoctrinated in the universities and the same plague the FBI was designed to keep at bay infiltrated at its core.

Today, instead of fighting Marxism and the globalist elite threat, the FBI and many other agencies work for the enemy and are subverting the American people.

Attention: The Agencies that were founded and designed to protect the American people have been turned against us and have been weaponized to enforce the agenda of the globalist/Marxist elite.

2. Intelligence Service – A Necessary Evil

Spies have been used in almost every war in human history. Intelligence is a necessity in combat. The army with better intelligence has a great advantage.

For this reason, in World War II, the British and American generals devised a plan for a joint intelligence operation. The American branch became known as the Office of Strategic Services (OSS) and the British branch would become Military Intelligence 6 (MI6).

“We didn’t have an intelligence service going into World War II. We set up the Office of Strategic Services just for that purpose. It got penetrated top to bottom with Soviet agents and communist agents. That was abolished after World War Two. And then the CIA was set up a few years later for the strict purpose of containing Soviet communism... they’ve so far strayed from their roots, and they’ve become so bloated and they became woke from not just the top, but from the bottom. When they were recruiting people in after 9/11, they were handing out security clearances like cookies, bringing in all these San Francisco-type tech people and people who just didn’t believe in America. They thought America was not worth protecting because it should be all of humanity. So, the CIA has taken on this globalist role that has little to do with protecting the Constitution and informing our leaders.” – J. Michael Waller

The OSS served the nation well during the war, but there were concerns that Soviet spies had infiltrated the organization, as well as many other areas of the American government.

The OSS was dissolved and replaced by the Central Intelligence Agency that we know today.

The purpose of the CIA was to subdue communism and Marxism around the world, just as the FBI was supposed to prevent the spread of communism on the mainland. The intelligence operations of the CIA directly contributed to the collapse of the Soviet Union.

Without an agency like the CIA, the US would be crippled in its foreign affairs.

“Abolish the FBI, abolish the CIA, and, well, that’s a good slogan. But it’s a terrible policy because we need counterintelligence. We need to fight organized crime. We need to fight child trafficking, illegal immigration, for that matter. We need a foreign intelligence service so we know what’s happening around the world so our presidents can make decisions.” –J. Michael Waller

The original purpose of the OSS and the CIA was to provide military intelligence to the president and our nation’s generals. This intelligence would prove to be vital for achieving victory in World War II and would remain vital through the Cold War.

However, the agencies slowly gained power and the once-decentralized intelligence community became a powerful deep-state conglomerate.

“One of the main purposes of the FBI is to fight foreign spies, foreign espionage, people who steal our secrets, and then foreign agents who influence our decision-makers and our public in a subversive way. So, the FBI would mount big counterintelligence operations to combat this stuff. But the only big operation begun on the watch of the Obama appointees to the FBI, was an operation called Crossfire Hurricane. It was a counterintelligence mission to hunt down foreign spies and influence ops. And it concluded and spread the rumors that Donald Trump was a Russian dupe, a Russian stooge, maybe a Russian agent, certainly a traitor to America. So, our spy resources, counterspy resources, were devoted to hunting down and spreading this story... John Durham, the special counsel, did a very lengthy investigation of this, as did former FBI Director Mueller. They concluded that this was all based on a false premise. There was no truth to these allegations... the FBI built its entire case on two foreign entities. One was a former foreign intelligence officer from Britain who was a leftist who worked on Soviet active measures campaigns back in the 80s against NATO and the second one was a Russian who the FBI suspected was a KGB man all along.” –J. Michael Waller

The FBI was directly involved in multiple attempts to ruin Donald Trump and prevent him from becoming president. Our intelligence community, designed to serve the civilian government, was activated to control it.

First, they claimed Trump was in cahoots with Russia and that the Russian regime wanted Trump to be president so they could use him for their own interests.

In the 2020 election, the FBI intentionally refused to investigate the Hunter Biden laptop and even worked with Big Tech companies to ensure the story was snuffed out.

These operations were not carried out in the best interest of the American people, nor did they adhere to any form of respect for the American Constitution of the founders of our nation.

Ironically, these operations were likely influenced by Russia in the hopes that Hillary Clinton or Joe Biden would become president.

“What the Russians want, like the Chinese Communists want is stable, predictable American leaders. So, you have that in Hillary Clinton. You have that in Barack Obama. You have it in John McCain, or the Bushes or people like them. They don’t want unpredictable leaders like Donald Trump, because then they can’t plan... Russia waited a year into Biden’s administration before invading Ukraine... What did Biden do? He had no strategy. Instead, he said, let’s abandon the Ukrainian capital, pull all the embassies out, pull the Ukrainian government out and move it westward toward Poland, and basically surrender the Ukrainian capital to the Russians. That was his plan.” –J. Michael Waller

There is no better leader for your enemy to elect, than a weak, predictable, or even controllable one. The Russians and Chinese knew this and wanted to see Hillary as president, and after four years of fearing Trump, they worked hard to help Biden win.

Attention: The FBI and CIA have both been used by foreign and domestic enemies of the American people, however, both agencies are necessary for protecting national security.

3. Infiltration – The Rise of Marxism

“We fought and won the Cold War. We thought, you know, we were pro-America. We fight the war on terror and everything. And all of a sudden now we’re finding ourselves with a weaker America, open borders. We’re losing across the nation. And, you know, one thing I talk about all the time is we’re at threat of losing the reserve currency of the world. The economy’s not strong. How did we get here?” –Kevin Freeman

After the collapse of the Soviet Union, the American economy dominated the world stage. Over the last few years, that power has dwindled as the US Dollar has been damaged by inflation, and the federal government’s excessive spending has hurtled the nation into unfathomable amounts of debt.

Pair this with the culture war that has distracted American citizens and politicians from the greater threats to national security, fiscal policy, and foreign policy. This culture war is part of a much longer plan to subvert the American people and destroy the pillars of our culture that made America great. This Marxist plot has been slowly making its way around the world for over a century.

“The actual operation began in 1922. It was a Soviet Bolshevik operation designed to collapse Germany after World War I... The idea was to take Karl Marx, who everybody thinks of as some sort of deranged economist, which he was. But that was the Karl Marx of 1848 when he wrote Das Kapital and The Communist Manifesto. Earlier, Karl Marx of 1843, was to declare war on culture, Greco-Roman, Judeo-Christian, Western culture with family values, and the father was head of the household and the nuclear family, and a big extended family, and morals and principles... his goal was to destroy all of that by questioning everything relentlessly until people no longer had faith in it.” – J. Michael Waller

Karl Marx’s original goal was not an economic system, it was the destruction of Western civilization and the intentional decimation of Judeo-Christian values. Marx’s goal, in essence, was to create a world where he and the elites could play god.

Dr. Waller explained what happened to all the academics and theorists that pushed Marxism in Europe during and after World War II; “We imported them to the United States. We set them up at Columbia University through a negotiation with Soviet intelligence to teach the teachers at the Teachers College at Columbia University and spread this cultural Marxism to attack our culture and bring us to where we are today... it began as a Soviet operation against us.”

Marxist teachings rushed to the forefront of the American higher education system as the educators themselves were indoctrinated with Marxist ideology.

⚠ Attention: The Marxist plot to overthrow Western Civilization has been underway for over a century and now America faces the next great hurdle in the fight for liberty.

4. Big Intel & How to Restore the Intelligence Community

It is abundantly clear that the intelligence community as a whole has not only failed to prevent the rise of Marxism in the US and around the world, but it has helped the plague spread.

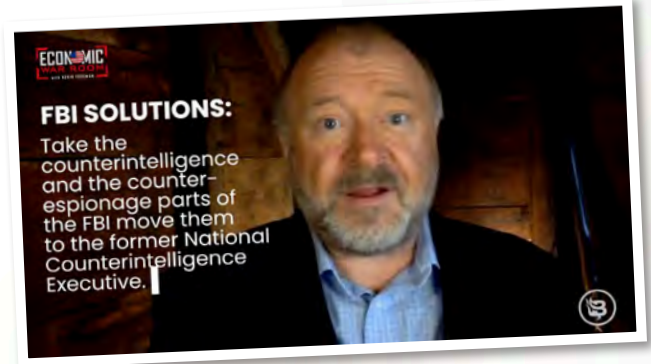

However, while these agencies have served the enemy, their original purpose makes them essential for the nation, especially with the tensions over a potential third World War being so high.

To solve the issues of the intelligence community’s betrayal of the American people and their sovereign duty, while maintaining military intelligence in times of conflict, Dr. Waller has a unique solution.

“These should be carefully dismantled in a plan. So, I’d take the criminal branch of the FBI that investigates federal crime and parcel it out to the US Marshals Service, which hasn’t become as woke yet. They’re our oldest law enforcement agency, George Washington created it. Put that and the FBI academy with the US marshals. Take the counterintelligence and the counter-espionage parts of the FBI and move them over to what President George W Bush created as a brainchild of a lot of our friends associated with the Center for Security Policy. It was then called the National Counterintelligence Executive. Move it over there. Take certain other parts. FBI doesn't need to have a firearms investigation unit when we already have an ATF, so why have two? Push it over to ATF and then we'll deal with ATF later. Just get it out of the FBI. Doesn't mean we have to transfer everybody there but transfer the functions there and some of the personnel. Similar to the CIA, It's bloated. We only have 1500 CIA operatives around the world in our different embassies. It's not very much. Why do we need, you know, tens of thousands in the whole CIA? And a lot of their analysis is just not good anyway. And we know that just from the leaks that we see in the press. So, pare that down a lot and then split the CIA into a clandestine service and then into a separate analytical organization and intelligence collection and analysis, and then get a grip on everything, and then we'll at least have broken things up so they can't be used against us. And then in the course of doing that, you can purge out a lot of the bad elements because you're abolishing their positions as you're transferring the functions." —J. Michael Waller

This solution would preserve the necessary functions of the federal agencies that serve the interests of the American people by fighting crime and protecting national security.

This is a necessity, the cleansing of the evils within these organizations will take more work and time, but the services these organizations provide will not be lost amid such a struggle, leaving the nation vulnerable to attack.
