

The Rise of American Jewish Conservatives

America faces one of the most pivotal elections in its history as two vastly different worldviews vie for control of the nation's future. The traditional American values, which made the United States the greatest nation in the world, are being challenged by Marxist ideologies that aim to overthrow the American way of life and design a new, dark future.

These traditional values come from Jewish and Christian traditions, where the concepts of American justice find their root in the Torah. This war for control of the nation is not simply political, it is a spiritual war in which the powers of darkness intend to destroy the City on a Hill, crushing the American dream.

It is up to us, the American people, to fight back against this encroaching evil using the tools found in those same books. Righteousness, love, and community will inspire the next generations in their pursuit of a better and brighter world.

In this briefing we will discuss the following:

- » Anti-Semitism, The War Against Humanity
- » National Security and the War in Israel
- » Traditional Values and American Jewish Conservatives

YOUR MISSION: Learn about the war in Israel and how antisemitism impacts national security.

ATTENTION: The war in Israel is a warning, and if America fails to support her allies, there will be no one left to defend her.

WHY YOU SHOULD CARE

- » The attacks of October 7, 2023, are some of the most heinous crimes against humanity in the 21st century.

- » “Pro-Palestine” protests have allowed antisemitic behavior to run rampant in the US, especially on college campuses.
- » Enemies of Israel are enemies of America and intend to destroy Israel and then the United States.
- » Our national security is under threat as terror organizations could have hundreds or even thousands of their men crossing the US border.
- » Traditional American values align with the Torah and should inspire Jewish Americans to vote accordingly.
- » American Jewish Conservatives is a new organization aiming to unite Jewish Americans who adhere to the Torah and inspire healthy social dialogue.

Ep. 8-311 (OSINT) Open-Sourced Intelligence Report. This briefing includes a conversation between Kevin Freeman and Benji Gershon. Benji is a friend of the Economic War Room® and a patriot.

Benji Gershon is a dynamic leader and advocate for conservative values, deeply rooted in the American Jewish community. As the driving force behind American Jewish Conservatives, he works tirelessly to promote the principles of faith, patriotism, and constitutional integrity. Benji’s commitment to education and activism is evident through the numerous events, speaker series, and forums he organizes, all aimed at addressing the pivotal issues facing conservatives today.

With a passion for uniting Jewish and Christian conservatives, Benji fosters a collaborative environment that supports Pro-God, Pro-America, Pro-Israel, and Pro-Constitution ideals. His visionary leadership aims to expand the influence of American Jewish Conservatives on a national scale, making it the go-to platform for political engagement, education, and action.

Benji Gershon’s dedication to his cause continues to inspire and mobilize a growing community of like-minded individuals committed to preserving and advancing conservative values in America.

1. Anti-Semitism, The War Against Humanity

On October 7, 2023, the world witnessed the most violent, brutal, and deadly attack on the Jewish people since the end of World War II.

The stories of grotesque violence plagued the world’s news stations as many could not fathom such wickedness. It was a day that will forever live in infamy.

Sadly, while most people grieved and were disgusted by these heinous crimes against humanity, others celebrated... and not just in the Middle East, but around the world.

Jewish students on American university campuses hid in closets and attics as “Pro-Palestine” protestors threatened their safety. For many, the parallel between these events and those of the 1930s and 1940s is abundantly clear, and it is unacceptable.

“They’ve allowed these things to take place on college campuses where you’re having death chants to Jews and anti-Semitism running rampant. Jews feeling completely harassed and in fear on college campuses.”

–Benji Gershon

This war continues to rage on in Israel as Hamas, Hezbollah, and their allies seek to wipe the Jewish people off the map. These same groups have expressed their desire to exterminate the Jewish people, and to then turn their sights to Christians.

This is expressed through the phrase “min sallaf es-sabt lāqā el-ḥadd qiddāmūh” translating to “First comes Saturday, then comes Sunday.” Which is often used as a threat by terrorist groups.

“You have people within our own Congress that are anti-Semitic, openly anti-Semitic, anti-Israel. There’s no difference anymore between anti-Israel and anti-Semitism, especially after October 7th. And this whole notion that somehow, we can have a two-state solution after October 7th is complete nonsense.” –Benji Gershon

Hamas has continually refused ceasefire agreements, as they are clearly hellbent on killing as many Jewish people as they can.

Attempting a truce and a two-state solution would only leave Israel vulnerable to future unprompted attacks.

Attention: The events of October 7, 2023, were tragic, and the response of some people has been equally heinous, threatening the security of Jewish people around the world.

2. National Security and the War in Israel

The connection between antisemitic sentiments and broader issues of national security cannot be ignored.

Ensuring the safety of Jewish Americans is ensuring the safety of Americans.

Combating antisemitism will also improve overall national security by addressing extreme and violent ideologies that threaten the lives of millions of Americans.

Many people living in Israel are also American citizens.

“We need to fully support our brothers and sisters in Israel... We get a lot of technology, and we get a lot of military intel from... and cyber technology from Israel. Who knows what kind of situation America would be in, honestly, without the intelligence we’re getting from them.” –Benji Gershon

Israel is a powerful ally in the Middle East and has been instrumental in many US military operations in the region, as well as in providing intel on potential terror threats.

In our current economic war with China, Israel is a strong ally, while Iran functions as China’s ally. These attacks against Israel and the ensuing war are likely proxy battles for Chinese control of the region.

The attack of October 7, 2023, could also be a foreshadowing of a similar attack here on American soil.

“Let’s contrast that now with what happened on October 7th. You mentioned how people came across the border on that horrible day. But you also mentioned that that same border is open in America, the same risk we have. My question is, aren’t they already here waiting for the operational orders?” –Kevin Freeman

Since the start of the Biden-Harris Administration, thousands of migrants have poured in across the southern border every day, totaling in the millions.

Many videos from the border have shown these migrants to be overwhelmingly military-aged men, many of whom could be connected to terror organizations or owe money to the cartels.

This is a very real threat to our national security as terror organizations like Hamas have called for a global Jihad against Jewish and Christian people alike.

⚠ Attention: The war in Israel poses a significant threat to US national security and the security of the entire region.

3. Traditional Values and American Jewish Conservatives

In this economic war with China, American culture has been under attack. The traditions of our forefathers are being challenged as cultural Marxists seek to overthrow the nation.

Jewish conservative values align closely with core American values such as individual liberty, not Marxism.

The preservation of these traditional values ensures the strength and unity of American democracy, benefiting the entire nation.

“It’s the million-dollar question why Jews still vote Democrat. No one has the perfect answer for it... Conservative values are aligned with Torah values... and these are just more aligned with common sense.” –Benji Gershon

The key is community. Most Americans today are cautious about bringing up politics when they are with people who hold differing perspectives.

This is especially true in synagogues and churches where the culture is to keep the peace and avoid ‘unnecessary conflict.’

The problem is that by avoiding these conversations, we never learn to have healthy social discourse. Instead, we avoid discussing some of the most important things that will have a direct impact on our daily lives.

“If conservatives win in the election, we need community. And it will take community to get them to win. But if they lose in the election, we need community even more because we’re going to have to stick together. We must hang together, or we’ll hang separately, so to speak.” –Kevin Freeman

Regardless of the outcome of this year’s election, people need to live in community, and opening those communities up to more healthy social discourse will benefit everyone involved.

A Constitutional Republic like ours is designed to allow for differing perspectives and provides a platform through which those perspectives can be shared and debated.

This open form of communication is essential for the America we know and love to continue to thrive for generations to come.

This is the mission of American Jewish Conservatives as they invite people of all different perspectives to attend their events and learn a new perspective.

 Attention: To survive as a nation, we must function as a people sworn to each other. We must work together to build stronger and healthier communities for our nation to prosper.
