

Your Values Are at Stake

Many people consider America to be more polarized now than at any other point in modern history. However, elections still reveal a seemingly even split between political parties. How then does the nation feel so divided? It's not about how divided we are, it's about what we are dividing over. For most of the last few decades, the two parties shared similar beliefs in the American dream and disagreed on small things. Recently the areas of disagreement have shifted from tax code and Medicare to religion, worldview, and American excellence.

Democrats have altered their party platform toward Marxism at an unprecedented pace, leaving many classical liberals (like RFK Jr.) stranded. In response to the radicalization of the left, the Republican party has undergone its own transformation fueled with religious zeal and a love for the America we once knew.

This upcoming election carries extreme weight as the future of our nation, and which value system it will adhere to, hangs in the balance.

In this briefing we will discuss the following:

- » American Values
- » Trump vs. Harris: Life vs. Abortion
- » Trump vs. Harris: Sex and Gender
- » Trump vs. Harris: Crime

YOUR MISSION: Learn about the true values of each of the candidates based on their track records.

 ATTENTION: The values of our nation, and our people, are under threat. This election will decide the future of our nation's moral compass.

WHY YOU SHOULD CARE

- » Traditional American values as One Nation Under God have inspired the American people to build the greatest nation the world has ever seen.
- » The battle for life is one that cannot be ignored. If the sanctity of human life is not a core value of the people, the future may be as dark as the holocaust.
- » The rise of LGBTQ+ ideologies impacts every family in the US as children are fed inappropriate content with parents none the wiser.
- » The LGBTQ+ ideologies have also expanded rapidly and there is no telling what else could soon be 'normalized.'
- » The religious rights of Americans are under attack as LGBTQ+ ideologues seek to remove freedom of speech.
- » America under a Harris administration threatens to be a nation of rampant crime and drug overdoses, destroying the American way of life.

1. American Values

The Cambridge Dictionary defines values as “The beliefs people have, especially about what is right and wrong and what is most important in life, that control their behavior.”

Values are what drive and define us. Ultimately, the way a person chooses to live reveals the values that they hold.

“When I hear the word values, I think of exactly what Cambridge lists: family, moral, traditional. I also think of Judeo-Christian and Western Civilization.” –Kevin Freeman

Traditionally, America has been a nation whose values were founded in scripture. There was a deep reverence for human life, a love of liberty, and a desire to build a better and brighter future.

American independence, the brilliance of our founding fathers, and the sacrifices made during and after World War II inspired nations around the world to adopt democratic processes built on similar values.

These American values made our nation the greatest nation on earth with millions of people emigrating in the hope of a better life.

Attention: Traditional American values have made the world a much better place, and continuing to live by them will allow us to build an even better future.

2. Trump vs. Harris: Life vs. Abortion

There may not have been an election where the candidates held such vastly different values as they do now.

Harris has supported abortion, while Trump's first term allowed him to appoint justices who ensured that Roe v Wade was overturned, giving states the right to decide if abortion would continue in their jurisdiction.

The Harris campaign has attacked Trump from two opposite perspectives. On one end, they accuse him of wanting to infringe on the “reproductive rights” of women. On the other, they tell pro-life people that Trump is not pro-life enough.

Trump's stance is that the Constitution does not mention the topic as a federal power, so it is left to the states to decide. While for pro-life people this is not enough, it is substantially better than the Harris campaign which seems to want to allow abortions up to full-term.

“Some states allow abortion up to the very moment of birth and then do verbal gymnastics to claim that viable and alive outside the womb is not a birth. It's true that such very late-term abortions are extremely rare. But they are not illegal in some states and that's the point.” –Kevin Freeman

In botched abortions, babies can be born alive and then neglected until they die. In a practical and moral sense, it's the same as post-birth abortion. And it has happened in Minnesota as noted by Daily Signal:

“As Democrats and media outlets accuse former President Donald Trump of dramatizing the Democratic abortion agenda, data from the Minnesota Department of Health shows that at least eight babies who survived abortions in the state were left to die.”

Under Governor Tim Walz, multiple abortions have involved babies that had already been born. They were left to die, and no measures were taken to preserve life. Gov. Walz then proceeded to change the law so hospitals would no longer be required to report these incidents.

Once the baby is outside of the mother's body, there is no argument for "reproductive rights." Yet Harris and Walz have refused to support legislation that would protect these young lives.

⚠ Attention: Harris and Walz are radically pro-abortion, desiring to allow abortion no matter the circumstances or the age of the child.

3. Trump vs. Harris: Sex and Gender

Another major topic in this election is the LGBTQ+ movement. Harris clearly supports it, and under Biden-Harris the White House has donned the LGBTQ+ Pride flag.

For many voters, this is a direct attack on their religious values. While for others, this has been a show of 'solidarity' for a marginalized community.

Trump's position here is moderate again. LGBTQ+ is not mentioned as a federal power, and so, it logically is a topic to be decided by the states.

The left, however, has attacked Trump saying he is either Pro-Gay, so religious voters refuse to vote for him, or say he would roll back protections for the LGBTQ+ community and criminalize gender non-conformity.

“Trump’s view: the LGBTQ+ community does what they want at a personal level, with the exception of perhaps of mutilating children. But at the same time, the gay community is not given carte blanche to go after Christians or others of faith. Trump believes religious objectors have rights too.” –Kevin Freeman

Trump’s stance is to protect children but to leave adults to their own devices. As long as religious rights and free speech are protected, people can choose to do what they wish.

This was the conclusion of the Obergefell decision which originally allowed gay marriage in the US:

“Finally, it must be emphasized that religions, and those who adhere to religious doctrines, may continue to advocate with utmost, sincere conviction that, by divine precepts, same-sex marriage should not be condoned. The First Amendment ensures that religious organizations and persons are given proper protection as they seek to teach the principles that are so fulfilling and so central to their lives and faiths, and to their own deep aspirations to continue the family structure they have long revered.”
–Supreme Court, Obergefell decision

Under Obama and Biden, religious considerations were tossed aside in favor of LGBTQ+ “rights.” And yet, even Obama/Biden would be viewed as moderate compared to Harris/Walz.

Everything we have seen in regard to Drag Queen Story Hour, recruiting of children in schools under the guise of sex education, and transgender surgeries for minors would be funded, supported, and mandated.

“A Harris presidency would put Biden’s gender policies ‘on steroids.’”
—Riley Gaines

Add to that the destruction of women’s rights and the work that has been done to grant women opportunities in sports. The push for LGBTQ+ access to bathrooms, women’s sports, schools, etc. has become a major issue for many Americans.

For many parents, the LGBTQ+ agenda has further threatened their children as evidence of pornographic content in schools came to light in recent years.

Many of these books are sold as “educational” for LGBTQ+ purposes. However, they depict blatantly sexual images and describe different forms of intercourse or other sexual acts, in other words, this is pornography inappropriate for schools.

⚠ Attention: Harris and Trump have vastly different perspectives on LGBTQ+ issues, with Harris promoting radical ideas that threaten traditional American values.

4. Trump vs. Harris: Crime

The candidates clearly have different values, but where do they stand when compared to the core values the nation was built upon?

The Ten Commandments were the foundational values of our nation. Trump and Harris have vastly different perspectives on life, murder, sex, and lust.

These align with some of the commandments, but what about ‘Thou shalt not steal’?

Harris supported Prop 47 in California:

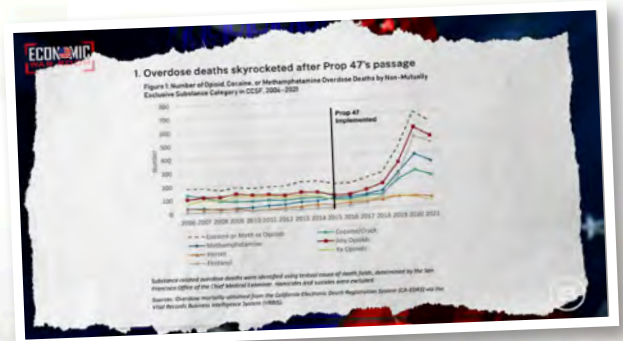

“[Prop 47] reclassified the following offenses from felonies to misdemeanors if the dollar value was below $950: shoplifting, grand theft, receiving stolen property, forgery, fraud, writing a bad check, and personal use of most illegal drugs.” –GrowSF

This proposition specifically prohibited police from arresting shoplifters if the value of what was taken was below $950.

Many videos have circulated of people running around stores with sweatshirts, shoes, and other items and then leaving without paying.

In response, stores like CVS have been forced to put glass barriers on the shelves to prevent shoplifting. Other stores, including 7-Eleven, Whole Foods, Nordstrom, Target, Starbucks, Denny’s, In-N-Out Burger, Macy’s, Taco Bell, etc. have closed up shop, unable to sustain the cost of stolen goods or the threat of crime against customers.

“Prop 47 was also about drugs. She supported it. And deaths from overdose skyrocketed. Take a look at this chart based on official government data. Within three years of passage, death rates started rising. Across the board, overdose deaths are 3-5 times higher than what they were before Prop 47 was passed.” –Kevin Freeman

Trump has remained steadfast, denouncing Prop 47 and calling it out as a major failure. The media attacked him, fact-checking his statements. But he was right, according to official government reports.

“The bottom line is that Kamala Harris is likely not aligned with your values, whether life, sexuality, pornography, crime, drugs, or equality. And in each of these areas, I suspect that Donald Trump is much closer to what you believe.” –Kevin Freeman

ECONOMIC BATTLE PLAN™

ELECTION 2024: VALUES ARE AT STAKE 8.315

CLEARED FOR RELEASE 10/17/2024
[Economic Battle Plan™ points:100]

The evidence is substantially in favor of Trump being the candidate whose values align more with those seen in the Ten Commandments, and the founding of our nation.

If you want to see our nation’s values flipped to Marxism or Maoism instead of the traditional Western values held by the founding fathers, then Harris is your candidate.

However, if you believe in the sanctity of human life, if you believe in the necessity of personal liberty, if you desire a nation that inspires people to greatness, then Donald Trump is unequivocally the candidate that best represents your values.

Attention: Harris has a track record of rampant crime, evidenced by an increase in theft, murder, and overdose. This is not what Americans want for their nation.
