

Trump's Win Highlights the Need to Address the CCP Threat

In an increasingly interconnected world, challenges to national sovereignty, security, and economic stability are rising from various fronts. Our primary adversary, the Chinese Communist Party, threatens to overthrow the US Dollar and is working against our national security interests. They are intent on decoupling the world from America and bringing an end to the American experiment. Partnered with them in the goal of de-Americanizing the world are the globalist elites who intend to create a one-world global government, stripping all people of their individual liberty.

In this briefing we will discuss the following:

- » Global Governance and the Role of Captured Elites
- » The China Threat and National Security Challenges
- » Economic and Financial Strategies

YOUR MISSION: To understand the challenges of global governance, national security, and economic warfare, and how proactive measures can protect our freedom and sovereignty.

WHY YOU SHOULD CARE

- » Global governance risks could undermine our national sovereignty, directly affecting our personal freedoms and democratic processes.
- » The manipulation by international bodies and the influence of elites within various sectors can skew national policies away from democratic principles.
- » The actions of adversaries like China threaten national security, infrastructure, and individual livelihoods.
- » As China's influence grows, so does its potential to challenge U.S. dominance in various domains, including military, economic, and informational warfare.

- » Potential risks like cyber threats, economic destabilization, and even direct military confrontations could affect your safety or the American economy and way of life.
- » Economic decisions, including investments, can either bolster national interests or inadvertently empower adversaries.
- » With Donald Trump returning to the White House, we as a nation have a window to address the Chinese Communist threat.
- » Knowing where and how to invest can protect your financial future, secure your liberty, and support your values.

Ep. 9-323 (OSINT) Open-Sourced Intelligence Report. This briefing includes a conversation between Kevin Freeman and Frank Gaffney. Frank is a friend of the Economic War Room® and an American Patriot.

Frank Gaffney is the Founder of the Center for Security Policy in Washington, D.C., a not-for-profit, non-partisan educational corporation established in 1988. Under Mr. Gaffney's leadership, the Center has been nationally and internationally recognized as a resource for timely, informed, and penetrating analyses of foreign and defense policy matters.

Mr. Gaffney is the host of Secure Freedom Radio, a nationally syndicated radio program heard weeknights throughout the country. He is an associate author of highly acclaimed Shariah: The Threat to America and the publisher of over a dozen other books and monographs from the Center for Security Policy Press.

1. Global Governance and the Role of Captured Elites

International bodies, like the United Nations (UN) or the World Health Organization (WHO), can be leveraged to bypass national laws and democratic processes, impacting individual rights and national policies.

This is happening now as the UN and the WHO have made moves to undermine national sovereignty in the event of climate emergency, which can be defined by them.

This is exacerbated by “captured elites” — influential figures in politics, media, and finance who align with adversarial interests for personal gain.

“They’re getting the UN, they’re getting the World Health Organization, they’re getting the Chinese Communist Party... to advance the agenda of taking down our sovereign constitutional republic.” –Frank Gaffney

The erosion of sovereignty is not an abstract concern. It directly affects governance and individual freedoms. Efforts to establish global control mechanisms are also designed to dilute constitutional values and democracy.

The solution lies in raising awareness and restoring accountability in leadership.

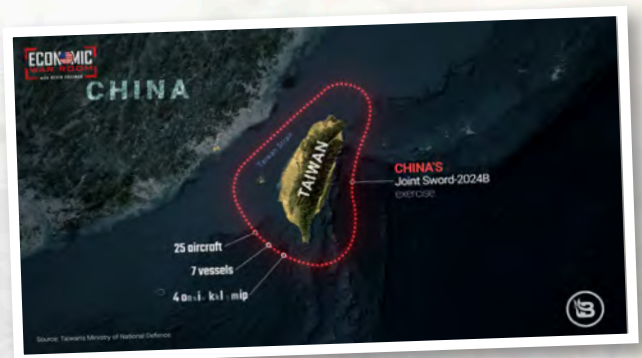

Attention: The influence of captured elites threatens the democratic integrity of nations, pushing toward a global governance model that would not represent or protect national or personal interests.

2. The China Threat and National Security Challenges

The Chinese Communist Party (CCP) has declared itself to be America’s most significant adversarial force, leveraging economic, military, and political influence to undermine U.S. security. They are directly connected to the WHO, as they have captured the elites who run globalist institutions.

China’s strategic maneuvers include military buildup, economic penetration, and influencing global politics, presenting both overt and covert threats to U.S. security.

“I have a unified field theory that virtually everything that ails us today is either directly or at least indirectly, spawned by the Chinese Communist Party.” –Frank Gaffney

Concerns range from infiltration through open borders to economic dominance and military aggression in the Pacific.

China's strategic placement of personnel and economic entanglements poses a "ticking time bomb" for national security.

Addressing this requires a multifaceted approach, including robust defense policies, economic decoupling, and exposing CCP influence domestically.

⚠ Attention: China's strategic actions pose a direct threat to global stability and U.S. security, necessitating vigilant awareness and strategic counteractions.

3. Economic and Financial Strategies

The U.S. continues to invest in and depend on adversarial nations, especially China, inadvertently funding their military and geopolitical ambitions. This paradoxical situation exacerbates vulnerabilities while undermining economic sovereignty.

“ We continue... to pour our money into China... they use it to build weapons and have 150 now...countries around the world on their side... Indeed. And they are weaponizing it for the purposes of a shooting war, or at least coercing us into submission... We cannot continue to underwrite our mortal enemy.” –Frank Gaffney

The current investment practices in our nation parallel those of investors in German industrial companies before the attack on Pearl Harbor. All those investments were lost, and the money was used to build military equipment for the Nazis.

Strategic financial decisions, including redirecting investments away from adversaries, can significantly impact national security, giving our military more of an advantage in global conflicts.

“Trump recognizes China more than any other as a concern. Now it’s mostly economic, but at least he recognizes that our future does not lie in Beijing as Obama did, as Biden did, as Clinton did.” –Kevin Freeman

The next administration will be better equipped for this challenge; however, it is not enough. The American people must decouple themselves from adversarial investments before it is too late.

Tools like the National Security Emerging Market Index ETF offer alternatives to investors, making it easy to balance financial returns with patriotic duty and national security.

Attention: Strategic investment can play a pivotal role in national security by limiting financial support to adversarial economies.
