

Go Ye Into All the World: Christian Lawmakers

At a time when American values are under assault from within and without, bold leadership rooted in biblical truth is essential. The National Association of Christian Lawmakers (NACL), formed just five years ago, has emerged as a powerful response, uniting elected officials, financial professionals, and citizens around a shared mission: restoring Judeo-Christian principles to government and economic policy. This Economic Battle Plan™ explores how faith-based leadership is reshaping state legislation, how personal investments can reflect moral conviction, and how you can play an active role in shaping the future of America—spiritually, politically, and economically.

In this briefing we will discuss the following:

- » The Rise and Impact of the National Association of Christian Lawmakers (NACL)
- » Faith-Based Legislative and Financial Leadership
- » Biblical Stewardship in Finance and National Security

YOUR MISSION: To understand how biblical principles are being reintegrated into public policy and financial decision-making, and how you can support and implement these strategies to defend faith, freedom, and prosperity.

WHY YOU SHOULD CARE

- » This is a critical moment for shaping legislation at the state and national levels. The NACL fills a void, offering a coordinated platform for advancing pro-faith, pro-family, and pro-liberty legislation nationwide.
- » Understanding the model of faith-driven leadership will provide you with a practical framework for advocating for moral clarity in public policy and making financial decisions that align with your beliefs.

- » Recognizing how biblical stewardship impacts economic security and national policy helps Christians invest wisely, support trusted allies like Israel, and resist harmful globalist financial agendas.

Ep. 9-357 (OSINT) Open-Sourced Intelligence Report. This briefing includes a conversation between Kevin Freeman and Jason Rapert. Jason is a friend of the Economic War Room® and an American Patriot.

Jason Rapert is a nationally recognized Christian leader, former Arkansas State Senator, ordained minister, financial professional, and the founder and president of the National Association of Christian Lawmakers (NACL). Over the course of his 12-year tenure in the Arkansas Senate, Rapert championed pro-life, pro-family, and faith-based legislation, including authoring the nation's first pro-life heartbeat bill in 2013.

He is also the founder of Holy Ghost Ministries, a global Christian mission organization with outreach projects in Ghana, Uganda, and the Philippines. As a licensed financial advisor, he previously worked for major Wall Street firms and currently serves clients through Providence Financial Group, which he also founded.

Rapert is the host of Save The Nation with Jason Rapert, a radio broadcast on Salem Media's FaithTalk 99.5 FM and podcast platforms. He remains a powerful voice for Judeo-Christian values in American government and culture, and under his leadership, NACL has grown to include members and supporters in all 50 states and Puerto Rico.

1. The Rise and Impact of the National Association of Christian Lawmakers

Founded in 2020, the National Association of Christian Lawmakers (NACL) is the first formal national association of Christian elected officials in American history.

Operating as a para-legislative organization, a nongovernmental group led by public officials, NACL empowers lawmakers at the local, state, and federal levels to craft model legislation based on a biblical worldview.

With members and supporters in all 50 states and Puerto Rico, NACL has quickly become a force in shaping faith-based legislation.

The organization's National Legislative Council, comprising eight standing committees, addresses critical issues such as the sanctity of life, religious liberty, and economic policy, including the endorsement of gold and silver as a transactional currency, now law in five states.

“The mission of the National Association of Christian Lawmakers is to bring federal, state, and local lawmakers together in support of clear biblical principles by meeting regularly to discuss major issues; propose model statutes, ordinances, and resolutions; to address major policy concerns from a biblical worldview.” –NACL Mission Statement

NACL fills a strategic location by giving Christian legislators a network and structure to advance morally grounded policy. While other good groups like ALEC focus on conservative political principles, NACL takes a decidedly Christian approach.

By leveraging the power of federalism, where state legislatures often take the lead when Congress is stalled, NACL is shifting the policy landscape toward biblical principles.

These efforts aren't abstract. They are impacting real legislation and reshaping how government officials approach their roles—not as neutral bureaucrats, but as moral leaders accountable to God and their constituents.

Attention: NACL's rapid growth and faith-based legislative model provide a powerful platform for Christians to influence policies that uphold biblical values across the nation.

2. Faith-Based Legislative and Financial Leadership

Jason Rapert, the founder and president of NACL, embodies a new generation of leaders who merge spiritual conviction with legislative action and financial integrity.

His career illustrates the powerful blend of public service, pastoral calling, and financial expertise.

As a former Arkansas State Senator, Rapert authored the nation's first pro-life heartbeat bill, banning abortion after detection of a fetal heartbeat, a model now replicated in multiple states.

His work with NACL continues that legacy, rallying like-minded legislators such as Representatives Doug Bankson (FL) and Mark Dorazio (TX) to champion biblical principles in policymaking. Both were leaders in their respective states and original sponsors of the successful transactional gold and silver legislation in 2025.

But Rapert's leadership doesn't end at the Capitol. As a financial professional, he encourages Christians to align their investments with their convictions, avoiding companies that promote abortion or anti-Christian values.

“If you work with good financial advisors... they can help make sure that your dollars are invested in things that do not violate your most closely held beliefs.” —Jason Rapert

This leadership approach directly challenges the influence of the popularized ESG (Environmental, Social, Governance) investing framework, which is regularly used to push globalist and progressive agendas through financial markets.

Rapert's dual emphasis on moral clarity and financial wisdom offers Christians a practical blueprint for personal and public faithfulness.

Attention: Faith-based leadership in legislation and finance equips Christians to advocate for policies and investments that reflect their values, countering secular trends in governance and markets.

3. Biblical Stewardship in Finance and National Security

Biblical stewardship extends far beyond tithing—it includes where and how you invest your money.

In today's economy, Wall Street has been weaponized, with ESG frameworks pressuring firms to prioritize progressive political agendas over shareholder value or biblical ethics.

Investors often unknowingly support companies that fund abortion, oppose religious freedom, or promote ideologies hostile to Christian values.

Instead, faith-based investing offers a solution. Christians can—and should—avoid ESG-aligned products and instead seek advisors who align portfolios with moral convictions.

“Your investment strategy can—and should—reflect your biblical values while defending financial freedom and national security.” –Kevin Freeman

The National Security Investment Consultant Institute (NSIC) furthers this mission by training financial advisors to serve clients with a Liberty, Security, Values investment strategy.

As economic instability grows under the weight of a $37 trillion national debt, the NSIC helped develop a solution that would return our nation to biblically grounded financial principles: transactional gold and silver, or Pirate Money.

NACL advocated for gold and silver as legal tender due to both its scriptural foundations (e.g., Proverbs 17:3, Genesis 13:2) and practical financial wisdom.

These precious metals are stable stores of value and are now being recognized by a growing number of states as alternatives to unstable fiat currency.

Additionally, investing in Israel Bonds offers a unique strategy that aligns with Genesis 12:3 (“I will bless those who bless you”) and provides interest-yielding, low-risk support to a strategic ally.

“One of the greatest ways that states can support Israel is by investing in Israel bonds.” –Jason Rapert

These bonds are governed by FINRA and operate like standard bond instruments, but their impact extends beyond.

Supporting these initiatives also strengthens national security by promoting economic sovereignty and standing with strategic allies.

Attention: Biblical stewardship in finance and national security empowers Christians to make investment choices that promote economic stability and support biblically aligned allies like Israel.
